

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Helen Mayberry Carter wishes to express our heartfelt gratitude and deepest appreciation to everyone who has shown love, kindness, and support during this difficult time. We are sincerely thankful to our family and friends for your prayers, comforting words, phone calls, visits, and every act of compassion extended to us throughout our season of loss. Your presence and encouragement have provided strength, comfort, and peace when we needed it most.

We extend a special thank you to the Hughes and Cain families for your unwavering support, care, and love throughout Helen's journey. Your kindness will never be forgotten; Accent Healthcare for the compassionate services provided; Pastor Rickey Brown for your faithful prayers, visits, and encouragement during this difficult time. May God richly bless each of you.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Helen Mayberry Carter

Helen Mayberry Carter was born on August 4, 1968, in Holmes County, Mississippi, to the late Ethelene and Brady Mayberry, Sr.

She received her education in the Yazoo County School District, attending King Elementary School, Linwood Jr. High School, and Benton High School.

In 1991, Helen united in marriage with Larry Carter, III. Their union was blessed with two children, whom she loved and cherished dearly.

Helen had a heart for serving others, especially children. She devoted many years to children's ministry in Tupelo, Mississippi, where she faithfully served as a dorm parent. Later, she returned to Yazoo County and continued her work at Parkway Church until her health declined.

Helen accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Parkway Church under the leadership of Pastor Jason Dillon.

Helen departed into eternal rest on June 5, 2026, at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Jackson, Mississippi.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ethelene and Brady Mayberry, Sr., and her brothers, John E. Mayberry and Syltoester Mayberry.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories through her children, Larry Carter, IV of Drew, Mississippi, and Helena Sheree' Carter of Benton, Mississippi; her siblings, Patricia (Marvin) Brookins of Lexington, Mississippi, and Brady (Victoria) Mayberry of Benton, Mississippi; her grandson, Larry Carter, V; and her bonus grandson, O'mari Taylor. Helen also leaves behind her special friend, Hubert Harris, along with a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends who will forever treasure her memory.

She was also deeply loved by the Hughes family of Oakvale, Mississippi, whom she often referred to as her second family and second home.

"Your Life was a blessing...Your Memory a treasure."

TRIBUTES

Our sister was more than family – she was a precious gift, a constant source of love, strength, and encouragement in our lives. Through every season, she remained a steady presence, offering wisdom, laughter, and unconditional love.

The bond we shared can never be broken by distance or even death. We will forever cherish the memories of family gatherings, heartfelt conversations, shared laughter, and the countless ways she made our lives better. Her kindness touched everyone she met, and her beautiful spirit left an imprint on our hearts that time can never erase. Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find comfort in knowing that her love lives on in each of us. We are grateful for every moment we shared and for the privilege of calling her our sister. Until we meet again, we will carry your memory with us every day. Your love, your strength, and your legacy will continue to guide us. We love you deeply, and you will forever be missed.

With all our love,
Patricia & Brady

It's so hard letting you go because we prayed so hard for you to stay. But we also realize that we can't be selfish knowing you're tired so if you must go it's okay. The fight that you fought you did your BEST, you stayed STRONG until the end, even during your hardest test.

The weekends that you spent with Larry, aka "Not so Lil Man" anymore was his highlight because being SPOILED by his Grammy was something that he always ADORED.

So, we HONOR and celebrate YOU, not the battle that you've gone through. You don't have to hold on to anymore pain, just let go, God is with you. Thank you for always being a part of our family. We will NEVER forget all that you have done. And remember, cancer did NOT win because your soul is at PEACE, so, you have WON!

You will truly be missed Helen.
