If the Lord would ask me (as He did ask Solomon) to choose anything my heart desires - no limit - everything available - ~~but~~ only one request would I deem important. Nothing material, for that will pass away. Not long life with good health, because death comes eventually. Even the wisdom to discern between good & evil would be wasted on me - just a woman, wife, mother & having but few years left on earth. I have no stature or importance.

My request is this: that all four of our sons, their lovely wives, and our precious grandchildren, will live lives pleasing to God and bring Him great joy and praise.

This is in accordance to Your Holy Will God, and I ask this one request in Jesus Precious Name - and for His sake.

Amen
