In Loving Memory of Trevor Alan Bruce Sinclair

June 22, 1998—November 16, 2021

Trevor was born to Walter Jr. and Rosina Sinclair on Monday, June 22, 1998. He was the second born out of 8 children.

Trevor was a happy go lucky person and lit up a room wherever he went. He was in a dark place for a couple years because of losing family on both sides.

Trevor enjoyed chilling and playing games with his brothers at home. His favorite sport was hockey, watching the game on TV and also playing road hockey with his many friends. He loved to joke around with those close to him.

Trevor loved all his siblings one by one, especially his little sisters Peyton and Sunshine. He would cook and clean to keep himself busy.

Trevor loved hunting and fishing as he was taught at a young age by his late uncle Rowland. He graduated the Mature Student Program in 2019 along with his mom by his side.

Trevor will be lovingly remembered and missed by his mom Rosina; siblings Duncan, Travis, Simone, Walter III, Michael, Christa-Lee and Peyton; kookums Caroline Thomas, Angelic Captain, Louise Martin, Sally Ann Buck; Godmother Stella Ledoux; chooms Mervin Captain, Marcel Cook; special friends Michelle Ledoux, Valerie Ledoux; Godchild Tanner Umpherville; aunties, uncles, cousins and other family members too numerous to mention.

Trevor was predeceased by his dad Walter (Jay-R) Sinclair; aunt Dora Ramona Sinclair; chooms Walter (Douglas) Sinclair, Presley Captain, Walter Martin; kookums Beatrice Beardy, Juliet Coor, Rita Young, Jemimah Easter, Margaret Flett, Elaine Gott; uncle Rowland Captain; cousins Gladys Captain, Tannis Captain, Dalton Cook, Nikita Beardy, Walter Thomas, Joshua Cook, Iona Cook, Angel Sinclair-Grey; nephews Aaron Lathlin-Captain, Roland John Lathlin, Baby Raincloud.

We would like to thank the community of Chemawawin and everyone that's been here, for all their generosity and help during our difficult and tough times.
