CELEBRATING
THE LIFE OF

*Delores
Jordan*

AUGUST 18, 1939 - APRIL 25, 2020

THE LIFE STORY OF Delores Jordan

Delores Jordan was born on August 18, 1939 to the late Alease Jordan in Wilson, North Carolina. On the evening of April 25, 2020, she answered the call of the Lord and transitioned from labor to reward. Delores was the second of five children. She received her formal education in Burgaw, NC. After completing high school she relocated to Brooklyn, NY with her cousin Fannie Sanders to further her education. Delores worked hard to put herself through school at local places like Burt's, Bamberger's, The Hahne's Company and on the Election Board. She later transferred to Essex County College obtaining a degree in social work. Delores worked for many years as a social worker for the city of Newark, NJ.

As a child she came to know the Lord at Calvary Baptist Church in Wilson, NC. She continued her Christian journey with her family at Metropolitan Baptist Church in Newark, NJ where she faithfully served as an usher and on various ministries. She completed her Christian walk as a member of House of God U.F.B.C. in East Orange, NJ where she attended with her sister Sandra and niece Beatrice. No matter what Delores never let her faith in the Lord fade. One of her prayers was simply "have mercy have mercy in Jesus name Amen". Delores made it her passion to teach her younger family members the Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13) Aunt Lois or Lois as she was affectionately known, loved her family and friends dearly. She always wanted everyone to be the best they could be and look good doing it. She taught us to always stand tall, be of good courage and always trust God.

Delores loved to go to shows on and off Broadway, concerts, circuses and her favorite The Macy's Thanksgiving Parade. She would always make sure we were there extra early to get the best seats. She also had a passion for photography, painting, fashion, cooking and just being around family.

Delores was preceded in death by: her daughter Aleasia Jordan of Newark, NJ; Goddaughter Bathena Sanders of Brooklyn, NY; Mother Alease Jordan of Newark, NJ; Brother Carnell Jordan, Grandparents Virgel Tate and Molly Jordan of Wilson, NC; niece Sanetha Jordan, three uncles Horas, Willie (Elizabeth) and Zeek Jordan, aunt Elsie De Bose (James) cousins Elizabeth Jordan of Newark, NJ; Fannie Sanders (Jessie) and Luberta Hargett of Brooklyn, NY.

Delores leaves to cherish her memory three sisters Mary Jordan Barnes of Sarasota FL; Sandra Jordan-Walker of Newark, NJ; and Vernell Jordan of Wilson, NC; Four nephews Robert White, Jamie and Willie Jordan of FL, Andre Edwards of VA; one loving niece Beatrice Eley (Chris), chosen children Samson, Laimar, Nazir De Bose of NJ, Dakir Hall of CA and a host of many dear relatives, church members and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
