

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Carrie L. Jones born on March 4, 1945 in Laurel, Mississippi, to the parents of Juanita and George Marsh. Carrie attended Oak Hills High School then graduated from Miss Valley State College with a degree in _____. Carrie and her sister, Cora moved to Cincinnati, Ohio in the early 70s and got a job as a substitute teacher.

Carrie started dating a young man by the name of Michael E. Jones then later on got married in 1972. She enjoyed gardening and her plants; she also gave her life to God. She was heavily involved in church. She liked to travel back to her roots in Mississippi and go to Detroit to visit family. Carrie enjoyed helping her family, because she believed that family is the most important thing in life-other than God. Carrie retired from Bond Hill Elementary School.

Carrie loved to travel but also grew closer with her faith in God. She also enjoyed cooking and dancing.

Carrie was preceded in death by her mother and father; husband-Michael Jones; her brothers-Sean and John; sisters-Marie, Minda and Cora.
