

Hand Hugs

Hands that rocked the cradle
From the moment of my birth,
Their tender touch remembered
By those still here on Earth.

Her sweet loving hands
That taught me how to pray,
Banishing childhood fears;
They soothed each one away.

When I grew much older
And troubles came my way,
Those hand hugs she would give you
Did more than words could say.

Mother's hands were gentle,
They're missed so very much,
I'd give the world to feel once more
Their warm and tender touch.

Those hands were full of comfort
Now they lie at rest,

But memories hold them close
To the ones that they served the best.

When stopping by to visit her
And it was time to leave
Her way to show she loved you...
A hand hug you'd receive.
