A cowboy's spirit, wild and free,
Rides on through eternity,
A son, a brother, cousin dear,
His love and laughter ever near.
With rugged grace and gentle heart,
He played his vital, shining part,
A soul that shined through night and day,
Guiding us along the way.
His footsteps leave a lasting embrace,
Though now he's crossed the distant hill,
His spirit lingers, calm and still.
May his journey bring him peace,
From our earthly bonds, release,
Rest in the arms of endless grace,
Forever in our hearts' embrace.
