IN REMEMBRANCE OF OUR Loved One

Barbara Williams, 65, was born on August 7, 1960, in Orlando, Florida, to the late Charles and Ida Mae Williams. She was the youngest of seven children and shared a special bond with her twin brother, Bobby Williams. Barbara grew up in Orlando, where she attended school and built lifelong friendships.

Driven by her compassionate nature and desire to help others, Barbara earned her certification as a Medical Assistant. Caring for people brought her great joy, and she dedicated herself to serving others with kindness and understanding.

Barbara was full of life, known for her vibrant personality, warm spirit, and love of having a good time. Her laughter, energy, and genuine affection for family and friends made her a joy to be around. She embraced life wholeheartedly and created lasting memories with everyone fortunate enough to know her.

She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved daughter, Shawntta Bynum; her cherished grandson, JaShawn Valentine; and six siblings, including her twin brother, Bobby Williams, as well as Melvin Taylor, Willie Taylor, Joan McCullough, and Charles Williams; sisters-in-law, Bernice G. Scott, Shirley Taylor, Joni Williams, and Gwen Williams; her brother-in-law, Curtis McCullough; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever cherish the love, laughter, and happiness she brought into their lives

She was preceded in death by her brother, Thomas Gilmore, sister-in-law, Daisy Taylor.

Barbara's caring heart, joyful spirit, and love for family will remain a treasured legacy in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Committal, Prayer and Benediction

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone

Into that gentle night

Grieve if you will, but not for long

Upon my soul's sweet flight

I am at peace, my soul is at rest

There is no need for tears

For with your love I was so blessed

For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not

The fear is now all gone

Put now these things out of your thoughts

In your memory I live on

Remember not my fight for breath

Remember not the strife

Please do not dwell upon my death

But celebrate my life.
