

The Obituary

Jean Delores Webster, daughter of the late Savannah and Viola Barnes was born February 8, 1935. Jean, affectionately known as "Sue" was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

After school, Jean met and married the late Randolph Webster, Sr. and from this union ten children were born. Jean was a devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She was very involved in the community in everything from being a volunteer grandparent at Pimlico Elementary School to hosting neighborhood events and holiday celebrations in her home.

Jean was preceded in death by her husband Randolph Webster Sr.; long time friend and companion Leonard Campbell; sons, Randolph Jr., Nathaniel & Gary Webster; daughters, Deborah, Karen & Jean Marie Webster & Margaret Smith. She was also preceded in death by her grandson, Antoine Webster.

Jean leaves to cherish her memory: sons, Thomas & Cermontine Webster; daughter, Sharon Webster; brother Calvin Barnes; niece, Jeanette Barnes; nephew, John Barnes; 12 grandchildren and a host of other family members and friends

A Message to My Family

Dear family, as you gather together today to celebrate my life and legacy. I want you to know that I truly cherished my relationship with each and every one of you. All the laughter, joy and happy moments we shared as a family were truly a blessing.

And the tears, sorrow and loss we endured as a family were all made bearable as we were always able to lean on one another to get through. My journey in this life has been an incredible one, one in which I could never have imagined would result in such a beautiful family.

As I transition to my next journey, I do so with the comfort of knowing that the foundation has been laid for each of you to carry on and live your best lives.

Continue to gather, celebrate each other's accomplishments and successes. Keep loving one another. And although none of you can prepare a Thanksgiving meal the way I did☺. keep spending holidays together. Of course I couldn't exit without getting in one last quip. Family, thank you. Thanks for making my 87 year journey a memorable one. I am always with you wherever you are.

Tributes

*October 4th the day our lives changed
The Lord called you home, for us life will never be the same
Our grandmother: our friend: our life coach.
Our rock: our strength: the one who loved us most.
Ms. Jean, Ms. Webster, even Ms. Sue to some.
To us, she's grandma our precious one.
Her heart, her soul, a smile that would light up a room
She was like a flower in full bloom.
You will be missed by all of us here on earth
But heaven gained an angel cause God knew your worth
Watch over us Momma, til we meet again
The legacy of Jean Webster will never end.
The Grandkids*

*A limb has fallen from the family tree
I keep hearing a voice saying, grieve not for me
Remember the best times, the laughter the song
The good life I lived while I was strong Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the days comes, that we meet again.
Your Children*

*Prayer
Dear Lord*

*I come to you as humbly as I possibly could with tears in my eyes and scratchiness in my voice I ask that you watch over my family.
I ask that you give them strength as we prepare to lay a loved one to rest. I ask that you cover them in your precious and holy blood. Carry the ones that are too weak to walk, hold up the ones who can barely stand and watch over the ones who are still in shock. The recovery will not happen overnight and the pain will never go away. But remind them that you're walking with them every step of the way
In your name, I pray
Amen*
