Acknowledgement

The family of Starling Alexander Anderson would like to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness shown to the family during this time.

~With Sincere Love, The Anderson Family~

*Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hands we cannot touch
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.*

*Your memory is our keepsake
With which we will never part
God has you in his keeping
We have you in our hearts.*

*It is sad to walk the road alone.
Instead of side by side.
But to all there comes a moment
When the way of life divide.*

*You gave us years of happiness
Then came sorrow and tears,
But you left us beautiful memories,
We will treasure through the years.
Love The Andersons*

The Obituary

Starling Alexander Anderson, also known as “Big Al”, was born June 18, 1969 in Man, West Virginia to Starling Alexander Johnson and Ona May Anderson.

Al moved to Columbus, Ohio in 1971 and graduated from a Columbus Public School on June 2, 1988. He enjoyed traveling with his wife, Andrea and three daughters. He loved spending time with family and friends. He took pleasure in writing and rapping. He had his own mixtape, “Big Al’s Big Score”. Everybody that knew Al knew that he had a passion for the Pittsburgh Steelers and New York Knicks. And that he knew how to have a good time! He departed from this earthly life on November 30, 2020 at the age of 51.

Al was a dedicated husband, loving father, caring son, big brother, cool uncle, fun cousin, and a good friend.

Al is preceded in death by his great grandmother, Bertha Wilson; great aunt, Cleo Wilson; father-in-law, Audee Roger Caldwell; uncle, Jerry Anderson; and father, Starling Alexander Johnson.

Al leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Andrea; three daughters: Tommara, Aniyah, and Sage; mother, Ona May; mother-in-law, Mary Teresa Caldwell; sisters, Kacey, Faye (David) Evans, and Sahara Simon; brother, Curtis (Phyllis) Johnson; grandmother, Rosetta Anderson; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
