RONNIE SANDERS

AKA - BE EZ

Mr. Ronnie Wayne Sanders departed this life on Monday April 6, 2020 at the John F. Kennedy Medical Center in Edison, NJ.

Ronnie was born on February 13, 1950 in Wilson, North Carolina to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sanders. Upon graduating from The C.H. Darden High School of Wilson in 1968, Ronnie relocated to Newark, New Jersey. He sought employment and was blessed to become an Operations Manager with The Newark Beth Israel Medical Center for over 20 years. It was there that he met his wife, Genell. They courted for a short while and on July 16, 1995 he proclaimed his love for Genell and they were joined in holy matrimony. Ever the devoted and faithful husband, Ronnie not only deeply loved his wife, Genell, he also loved and cared her children, Shanta and La-Shun, as if they were his own biological children.

There were many things that Ronnie loved, but he was passionate about a few things; his family, his High School Graduating Class, C. H. Darden Class of 1968 and sports! Ronnie's love for recreation and sports led him to become a firstclass bowling connoisseur. Ronnie became one of New Jersey's most sought-out bowlers for leagues across the state. To his honor, he won many championship trophies and metals of honor for his bowling ability.

However, whether it be bowling, baseball, basketball, football or soccer, there was no sport that Ronnie was unfamiliar with. His favorite time of the year was always football season, as he was a devout Giants fan.

Though very quiet at times, Ronnie's infectious smile and selfless personality gained him friends everywhere he went. There was nothing he would not do for a friend or family member.

Ronnie leaves to celebrate his memory, a faithful and devoted wife, his loving parents Mr. Theodore and Annie Sanders of Wilson, North Carolina, Genell Vanessa Sanders, a daughter, Shanta Robinson, a son, La-Shun Robinson and two special grandchildren, Marley Alexander Robinson and Mahogany Rae Robinson. He leaves his siblings: Wanda Cooper, Manuel Sanders, Marvin Sanders, Anthony Sanders, Labua Sanders, Russell Sanders, Tania Moses, Traci Sanders, Stacey Sanders, Renee Sanders along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, in-laws and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
