Life's Reflection

On Tuesday, May 3, 2005, Jesus called Georgianna Lewis (Annie) home to be with Him and her family. She was born February 8, 1919 to Bessie Conley and William F. Pritchett in Harlan County, Kentucky.

Georgianna (Antee) grew up in Cincinnati where she met and married Samuel Lewis. To this union they were given Darlene Conley.

Georgianna (Antee) was an active member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, also a member of the Eastern Stars. She was active in the transition with Lincoln Heights School into the Princeton School District. She received many awards from her performances as a GLPN from Glen Manor Nursing Home and Drake Hospital. Antee was preceded in death by her parents, Bessie Conley and Willie F. Pritchett; husband, Samuel Lewis; Tobe Davis, Nora Conley, Lester Conley, Bill Pritchett and Odessa Thompson.

She leaves not to mourn but to keep in loving memory: her children, Darnell and Valerie Pruitt, Clarence Pruitt, Renee and Larry Ridley, Lu Lu, LaVaya, Dominic Jr., Joseph, DeAndre, Venita and Rick Smith, Tobias J. Davis, Thomas and Leila Conley of Georgia, and one sister, Helen Dillingham, six grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Antee's prayer was "Lord let me live to see my babies grow" and her faith in God allowed her to do that.

*She was a noble wife, mother, and aunt, loved by all she knew.
She helped all she met, with a loving smile and an open heart and home.
She served and loved her Master, and tried His will to do.
Was always helping others, a life no noble, kind and true
We will miss her bright smile, and all her loving ways
But we will try to live for Jesus, and meet her at the end of our days!*
