The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

On behalf of Jarold's family, thank you for your support during their time of loss. Please join the family following the graveside service at the Deep River Community Center for a luncheon and time of fellowship.

Jarold Ellys Greene, the son of Ellys and AlVada (Robertson) Greene, was born February 11, 1936, 1½ miles southwest of Deep River, Iowa. Jarold attended Deep River School, graduating in 1954. On June 24, 1956, Jarold was united in marriage to Virginia Schlesselman in Deep River. To this union six children were born: Bryan, Janietta, Carmela, Rhonda, Brant and Erin.

In early 1962, Jarold and Virginia received salvation while attending a tent revival meeting and were baptized in a farm pond north of Deep River. They waded out with the preacher, who got stuck and needed help to get out of the mud. Jarold farmed for two years and then worked road construction for eight years for F.A. Moser, building culverts throughout Iowa and on Interstates 80 and 35. He then worked until retirement from Amana Refrigeration, Amana, Iowa. He also operated a small electrical and heating business out of his home. Jarold enjoyed teaching Sunday School class and singing. He sang for many funerals and weddings. He also volunteered as a Little League softball coach for Deep River and assistant coach for HLV High School and also an Adult Women's League in Deep River. He enjoyed teaching the fundamentals of softball with an emphasis on pitching and hitting. Jarold had several hobbies, including, target shooting, hunting and flying model airplanes. He kept busy at night talking on his C.B. Radio and many times talked with people as far away as Australia.

His legacy will be honored by his children, Bryan (Mary) Greene of North English, Janietta (Steve) Criswell of Montezuma, Carmela (Mike) Tarvin of Bondurant, Rhonda (Bill) Blomme of Parnell, Brant (Laura) Greene of Williamsburg and Erin (Dustin) Darrah of Kellogg; 14 grandchildren, Jason (Chrystal) Greene, Scott (Janelle) Greene, Janelle (Jay) Watkins, Adam (Jamie) Criswell, Jared (Rebecca) Criswell, Jacy (Adam) Porter, Blake (Hannah) Tarvin, Tifanie Blomme, Tanner (Caitlin) Bloome, Derek Greene, Elizabeth Greene, Jeremiah Greene, Brylee Darrah and Nash Darrah; 26 great grandchildren; brother-in-law, Jack (Judy) Schlesselman along with nieces, nephews and friends.

Jarold was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Virginia (Schlesselman) Greene and two sisters, Marianne Manley and Frances Elliott.

He is forever in our hearts and will be missed by many. We take comfort in the fact that he is present with our Lord.
