Precious Memories

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be Thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

*Hymn No. 92 -
Rock of Ages*

Verse 1

Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From Thy wounded side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure;
Save from wrath and make me pure.

Verse 2

Not the labor of my hands
Can fulfill Thy law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears forever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone.

Verse 3

Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress;
Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly;
Wash me, Savior, or I die.

Verse 4

While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyes shall close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

*Hymn No. 220 - What a Friend
We Have in Jesus*

Verse 1

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer.

Verse 2

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Verse 3

Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our refuge—
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

Hymn No. 83 - Nearer, My God, to Thee

Verse 1

Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

Verse 2

Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee...

Verse 3

There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee...

Verse 4

Then with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee...

Obituary

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." — 2 Timothy 4:7

With hearts full of gratitude to God, we celebrate the life and legacy of Mami Anna Ngwe Nyamusa, affectionately known as Abot Anna or Ann—a woman of deep faith, quiet strength, and unwavering devotion to family.

Mami Anna was born on January 8, 1945, in Acha-Tugi Village, Northwest Region of Cameroon, to the late Muayang Eni and Pa Gahnye. She received her early education at Bafut Girls School, where the strong moral values that shaped her character were firmly rooted.

She was united in holy matrimony to Mr. M. N. Nyamusa, also of blessed memory. During her husband's years of public service across West Cameroon, Mami Anna stood faithfully by his side as the backbone of the home—supportive, selfless, and resolute. In the mid-1970s, she endured a tragic motor accident that claimed the life of one of her twin babies and left her seriously injured. Through God's sustaining grace and the support of family, she recovered and continued her life with renewed courage and resilience.

Blessed with many children, Mami Anna was a devoted and loving mother. As the first wife, she embraced the extended family with remarkable generosity of spirit and was fondly known as "Mother Number One." Her home was a place of care, guidance, and unity. Choosing family above all else, Mami Anna declined a public service appointment to devote herself fully to caring for her husband and children. Over the years, she lived in Nigeria, Canada, and the United States, eventually becoming a dual citizen of Cameroon and the United States.

On January 24, 2026, Mami Anna was rushed to the hospital in Ohio, USA, following a severe headache. She peacefully answered the Lord's call the following day, January 25, 2026, at the age of 81.

Mami Anna leaves behind her children, grandchildren, extended family, and countless loved ones who will forever cherish her legacy of faith, sacrifice, humility, and unconditional love.

May her gentle and noble soul rest in perfect peace.

Loving Tributes

Nyoh Njoka (Granddaughter)

As her granddaughter, I will always remember my grandmother as a woman who showed love through simple, intentional acts. She expressed her care through cooking, giving, and selfless devotion to her family.

Even in her age, she remained active and strong, teaching me to slow down, love deeply, and value life's meaningful moments.

Her love and legacy will always live on in me.

Ache Sefflin Mbedi (Granddaughter)

Mami,

Since childhood, your love has been one of my greatest blessings. You were always present, caring for us and making sure we were safe, fed, and supported. Your love was shown through your actions, your attention, and your constant care.

You taught me what it means to love deeply and care for family. Though you are no longer here, the impact of your love will remain with me forever.

Thank you for everything, Mami. I will always love and miss you.

Felix Teche Nyamusa (Son)

Thank you, God, for letting my siblings and me come into this world through Mami Anna Ngwe Nyamusa, Papa Moses Nyam Nyamusa, and Mama Nyoh Asareme. Mami Anna, you gave, I think, the best of what an ideal mother is expected to give.

Good night to say the least.

Njoh Vero (Family)

Dear Mom,

Your death was announced to me like a bomb. We spoke for a few days, and you requested some things from me; they are ready, but you are nowhere to be found. What do I do with all that you need? Please tell God to give you some minutes to talk to me.

My heart bleeds, and I am confused.

When you get there (in Heaven), greet all family members. Tell them to watch over us.

Loving Tributes

Silvia Eni

Mami, my three-in-one—an aunt, mother, and grandmother. Your love and care were rare and unwavering, always felt even from a distance through your calls, words, and prayers.

Your kindness, selflessness, and generosity touched many lives and brought hope in difficult times. I will always cherish your gentleness, warm smile, and love.

Rest in peace, Mami. You will forever be remembered.

Constance Nyoh

Today, I honor my dear aunt, Mami Anna—a remarkable woman of warmth, wisdom, and unconditional love. She made everyone feel valued, and her kindness and laughter touched many lives.

Though I grieve deeply, I am grateful for all she did for me.

Rest in peace, Mami. Your legacy lives on.

Tatah Njoka (Grandson)

I still can't believe you're gone, Mami. You were the heart of our family and a true example of unconditional love. You cared for us deeply, always making sure we were fed, protected, and treated with love and fairness.

Your presence, your calls, and your smile meant everything to us. Though you are no longer here, your love and legacy live on through us.

Rest in peace, Mami. We will always take you with us.

Nyamusa Jessy

Mami, I still struggle to accept your passing and continue to wait for your calls. You fought a good fight and finished your race faithfully.

I will always cherish the moments we shared—living, sharing, and caring as one family. The family will forever miss you.

I will continue the work we started, trusting that your spirit guides me. You will remain in my heart always until we meet again.

Rest well, Mami.

Pamela Nyamusa

Dear Mami,

Your passing has left me deeply heartbroken. We spoke just days ago, and I could not have known it would be our last conversation. You were a woman of peace, strength, and sacrifice.

I will always cherish your love, your care, and the memories we shared in the village and Bamenda. You endured so much, yet always made sure we were cared for.

Rest in peace, Mami, until we meet again.

Loving Tributes

Margaret Nyamusa Njoka (Daughter)

Dear Mom,

You were a beacon of kindness—selfless, compassionate, and always there for others. You taught us empathy, integrity, and perseverance through both your words and actions. Your love was our guiding light, even in the darkest times. You've left a lasting mark on our hearts, and we are forever grateful.

Rest in peace, Mom. Your love and memory will always guide us.

Valentine Nyamusa (Son)

Mommy, though your passing has separated us, my heart stays with you always. Your love and legacy live on in me. Rest in peace until we meet again, never to part.

Hilda Nyamusa (Daughter)

May the Lord fill the vacuum created. Rest in perfect peace, Mom.

Florence Nyoh Nyamusa (Daughter)

Thank you for the love, memories, and all you did for us. From dancing, shared meals, long talks, to church drives, these moments will stay with me forever. You were truly amazing, Mami, and I will always miss you.

You taught me that silence is power, humility is strength, and a peaceful life is a blessing.

You lived with grace, listened more than you spoke, and remained strong in your faith.

On that Saturday, God called you home peacefully. We love you deeply, but we trust His perfect timing.

Valerie Nyamusa (Daughter-in-law)

Mami, Mamamaya as you used to say,

On January 24th, 2026, at Mercy Jewish ICU, I saw you and called your name, but you didn't respond. I held your hand, hoping for a sign, but there was none. We spent the night praying you would speak to us.

The following day at 10:22 AM, you were declared gone, though we remained in denial, still calling you.

Rest well, Mami. We will miss you dearly.

Loving Tributes

Blessing Nyamusa (Daughter-in-law)

Mami, your passing came as a shock, and I am still struggling to accept it. I had planned to call you that very Sunday. You were truly a blessing and a source of pride to us. God gave me the mother-in-law I desired and has now called her home.

Rest in peace, Mami. You will always be loved and remembered.

Aniebiet-Abasi Isaac Nyamusa (Grandson)

Big Mami, words are not enough to express the love you showed me. I never expected you to be at rest so soon, as I hoped to see you again one day. It has been about ten years since I last saw you, but your memory has remained with me.

You were a truly kind grandmother, the kind anyone would be blessed to have. You made the most of every moment you had with us.

Rest in peace, Mami. You will be dearly missed.

Njoh Idara-Abasi Nyamusa (Grandson)

Dear Mami,

As I say goodbye, I am filled with memories of your love and guidance. You always encouraged me to study and strive for my best, reminding me that education is key to a better future. I will always remember your care, especially those early mornings by the fire in the village.

You lived a life of selfless love, and your legacy continues to inspire us.

Rest in peace, dear Mami Anna Nyamusa. You will always be remembered.

Baba Nyam Nyamusa (Grandson)

Today, we honor the life of my grandmother, a remarkable woman whose kindness, generosity, and love will always be remembered. Her legacy will continue to live on through us.

Tatiana Nyamusa (Daughter-in-law)

It still feels surreal that Mami is no longer with us. She was a woman of quiet strength whose kindness, grace, and unconditional love deeply shaped our family. Through her actions, she taught us faith, forgiveness, and resilience.

Her legacy lives on in the love we share and the values she instilled in us.

Rest in eternal peace, Mami. You will always be with us.
