

*To Our Mother
If Roses Grow In Heaven*

By Dolores M. Garcia

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy, do it every day,
If roses grow in heaven, I want my mother to have her share.
Lovingly Your Daughters

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

Let Me Go
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.
Love The Family

Acknowledgements
Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much
Whatever the part!

OBITUARY

DEBORAH JEAN TEAL-GIBSON

Deborah Jean Teal-Gibson, affectionately known by family, friends, and co-workers as Miss Debbie, was born on October 26, 1952 in Charlotte, North Carolina. She was the only child of Betty Jean Teal and Sherman Johnson. She departed this life on January 1, 2023 at the age of 70.

Debbie's parents moved to Baltimore when Debbie was four-years old; therefore, she grew up and made her life here.

She received her education in the Baltimore Public School System. Then, while working and caring for her family, Debbie earned her degree in Social Work, from the University of Maryland. An accomplishment she was extremely proud of, as she found joy in assisting and supporting those she served as a Social Worker. She served as a compassionate, dependable, hardworking, resourceful support to coworkers and patients. She ended her career as a Social Worker, and gained employment with FHCB Health System.

She was a loving mother, grandmother, friend, and Social Worker. The same loving spirit she showed in her work carried over to her family, friends, and community. Miss Debbie was deeply loved by all, and was considered a Neighborhood Auntie.

Her parents and four of her children, Shanna, Donta, and Tracy preceded her in death.

Miss Debbie leaves to cherish her memory, four children, Octavia, Stephanie, Derrick, and Antonio, fifteen grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren and her five best friends, who were more like her sisters: Paulette, Becky, Richie, Geneva, and Miss Tammy.

Miss Debbie was the rock of her family. Those who knew her will miss her and genuinely cherish her memory for times to come. Sleep in Peace and we love you. Your children, grandchildren, and friends.
