Celebrating the Life of

Anthony
QUINN
BONNER

"RABBIT"

MARCH 20, 1967 - SEPTEMBER 19, 2026

LIFE'S JOURNEY

Anthony Quinn Bonner

"RABBIT"

Today, we gather to honor and celebrate the life of Anthony Quinn Bonner, a man whose presence touched the lives of so many.

Anthony was born on March 20, 1967, in Jersey City, New Jersey, to his late parents, Edna Bonner and Claxton Veale.

He was a beloved brother to Lillie Bonner, Bonita Spella, Betty Spella,Carol Bonner, Gregory Bonner and Mark Bonner-Watson.

Anthony leaves behind his beloved wife, Marcel Antoinette Bonner, and his sons, Cody Thomas, Davel Gafford, and Desean Riley. He also leaves behind several cherished grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and countless friends who will carry his memory in their hearts.

Anthony had a natural gift for the game of basketball, a talent that became an important part of his life. He attended Northwest High School, where he proudly wore jersey number 32 and was part of the 1985 State Championship team in Omaha.

Eventually, Anthony made his way to Denver, Colorado, a place he came to call home. And wherever Anthony went, he seemed to find a way to make a connection. He was like a magnet for people, drawing others toward him with his personality, his warmth, and his genuine heart. He made countless friends throughout his life, many of whom became like family.

Anthony was a tall man with an even bigger heart. He had a presence that could fill a room, but it was his heart that people will remember most. He had a way of making people feel welcomed, and the relationships he built throughout his life are a testament to the impact he had on those around him.

Today, while our hearts are heavy with the pain of losing Anthony, we can also be grateful for the years, memories, laughter, conversations, friendships, and love that he gave us.

His life was more than the years he spent with us. It was the people he loved, the friendships he created, the family he cherished, and the memories he left behind.

Anthony may no longer be with us in person, but the love he gave and the memories he created will continue to live on through his wife, his children, his grandchildren, his siblings, his nieces and nephews, and the many friends who were fortunate enough to know him.

Anthony,

As I write this letter my heart feels an indescribable pain. We had managed to become one in time. Even through the ups and downs, you still remained my guy. My heart has lost an essential part: you! In short notice, my days fill with pain, as tears fall, but I know you are in a better place. Friends and family will always remember that million dollar smile. God placed you in my life for a season and now has called you home. No more pain and no more sadness. The angels picked you up and flew you to His kingdom. One day my love, we will meet again.

Love Always, Marcel Antoinette
