

God's Garden

*God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

Obituary

Known to most as Nan, Mary B. Williams (Cables) adored mother, grandmother, and friend was called home on November 3, 2020. She was reunited with her beloved parents, sisters, and brother.

Nan was born on September 13th, 1937, in South Lanarkshire, Scotland. She would later call Somerset, Kentucky her home, where the fishing and Bingo were endless. She would make her final move to Northern Kentucky to grace us all with her infamous one liners and zest for life!

Nan loved a good yard sale and trying her luck at casinos or scratch offs. But her greatest love was always her family. Nan cherished every moment with her children, grandchildren, and especially her great-granddaughters. It is through them that her memory, spirit, and love will forever carry on, just as she would have wanted...
