

Face On

Don't remember me only in silence.
Remember me in motion.
In the sound of tires on gravel,
In muddy boots by the door,
In late nights laughing too hard
With the people I loved most.
Remember the fishing trips,
The engines, the chaos, the stories.
Remember that I lived.
And if you miss me,
Go outside.
Watch a sunset.
Take the long road home.
Move dirt.
Race on.
Cast a line.
I'll be somewhere in the wind with you.
