

Celebrating THE Life OF

Helen Elaine Loehr

JUNE 26, 1930 – SEPTEMBER 12, 2025

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,

FAR GREATER THAN WE KNOW.

For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an EVERLASTING
peace
Together with the lord.

Elaine Loehr lived her 95 years with grit, love, and just the right touch of sass. Born in 1930 in Minnesota, she built a beautiful life with her husband Milton, raising children, working hard, farming weekends, and still finding time to hunt, fish, crochet, dance, and love her family deeply.

She was an outdoorswoman who could bag a deer or even a bear, yet she was just as happy with a crochet hook in her hand or a grandchild on her lap. She loved to dance, especially with Milt, and their retirement years were filled with music, laughter, and fishing trips on Lake Winnie surrounded by family.

Elaine had a wit as sharp as her aim and a heart as big as her home. She told it like it was, but always with love, and you never left her side without a smile, or at least a good story to tell.

She is preceded in death by her husband Milton, her daughter Patricia, and several siblings, and is survived by her son Michael (Judy), three granddaughters, Melissa (Fady) Boctor, Aimee (Gianmarco) Russo and Patricia (Chris) Sherrill; eleven great-grandchildren, her sister Gladys (Jim), sisters-in-law Linda (Cliff) Hatlestad, Carol (Leonard) Loehr and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Elaine will be remembered as a woman who worked hard, loved fiercely, and danced joyfully. She leaves behind a legacy of strength, laughter, and family that will carry on for generations. And if heaven has a dance floor, we can be sure she's already saving a song for Milt.
