

Poem

*Lord, I sometimes wonder
What is in store for me
Only you and you alone know.
For if it wasn't for you.
I don't know where I'd go.*

*I've been through some hard times;
And you were always there to see me through.
Lord, if it wasn't for you;
I don't know what I'd do.*

*With love,
The Family*

OBITUARY

Juanita Saunders was born September 19, 1932 in Asbury Park, New Jersey to the late Mr. Major and Mrs. Ethel Halinda Day. She was educated in the Asbury Park School System. At an early age, she was employed by New Jersey Bell Telephone Company as a telephone operator. She retired as one of New Jersey Bell Pioneers. She loved music and learned to play the piano which lead her to teach her sons and many in the community. She was always ready to serve her community as a neighbor and a lifelong member of Second Baptist Church of Asbury Park.

At Second Baptist, she served as Assistant Superintendent and teacher of Sunday School, Vacation Bible School Teacher and a member of the Christian Board of Education. She was a Seacoast Honoree and was honored as a Fifty Years (+) Member.

She was predeceased by her parents, her son: Darryl Hughley, her brother: Major Douglas Day Jr., sister: Deloris Shepperson. She leaves to cherish her memories her sisters: Valerie Brown (James), Ruth Davis (Charles), her brother: Ivan Day, her sons and grandchildren: (Darryl) Sonni, Samara, Devon, Wayne D. Hughley (Ophelia) Aimie, Wayne D. Jr, Camille, Christopher; Kevin M. Hughley (Deborah) Kerryn, Kyla; Clarence W. Saunders Clareese; David A. Saunders (Samantha) Taylor, Elijah; and extended grand-children; Alyssia Vick, Donald “DJ” Vick, Clinton Thomas, Alexandria Scott, Raven Parnell, Larry Sessom, and a host of Great-grands, Great -Great-grands, cousins, nieces, nephews, and God Children.
