

Doris Himrich was born on January 3, 1931, and raised on a farm near Selby to John and Bertha (Maier) Himrich. She attended school at Selby. On July 25, 1948, she married Henry Weiszhaar at St. John Lutheran Church in Selby. They made their home in Selby. While in Selby Doris was active in jaycettes and also was an outstanding jaycette in 1959. She taught Sunday school for many years and was active in her church. She worked in the Red Owl store which Henry and Doris owned until it burned down in 1970. They then moved to Mobridge in 1971 and bought Barkers Bootery Family shoe store where she worked until 1995.

Doris was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and held several offices in TLCW. She also quilted and knitted prayer shawls for TLCW. Doris also loved to play cards and belonged to several card clubs. She loved to go to coffee parties with her many friends. Doris lived at the Walworth County Care Center since November 2023.

Doris is survived by three sons; Douglas (Nancy) Weiszhaar, David (Carol) Weiszhaar, and Gary Weiszhaar, four grandchildren Jason (Danielle) Weiszhaar, Josh (Samantha) Weiszhaar, Nick Weiszhaar and Sarah (Pete) Johnson, eight great grandchildren, Conner, Ethan, Addison, Avery, Cameron, Rowan, Sloan and Kristen; her sister Dianna Rubin (Tulsa, OK), brother, Robert (Jane) Himrich (Sioux Falls, SD), and her brother-in-law Clayton Neumiller.

She was preceded in by her husband Henry Weiszhaar in 2000, her parents John and Bertha Himrich, brother, Herbert (Anita) Himrich and her sister Alice Neumiller.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to the Walworth County Care Center or Trinity Lutheran Church of Mobridge.

In Loving Memory Of

Doris Weiszhaar

1931 - 2026

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me
for now I'm free
I'm following the path
God laid for me.

I took His hand when
I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love,
to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found that peace at close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times,
a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now. He set me free.
