

So this is it
I say goodbye
To this chapter of my ever-changing life
And there's mistakes
The path is long
And I'm sure I'll answer for them when I'm gone

So when the day comes and
The sun won't touch my face
Tell the ones who cared enough
That I finally left this place

That's been so cold
Look at my face
All the stories it will tell I can't erase
The road is long
Just one more song
A little something to remind you when I'm gone
When I'm gone

The road to hell
Along the way
Is paved with good intentions so they say
And some believe
That no good deed
Goes unpunished in the end or so it seems

So when the day comes and
The sun won't touch my face
Tell the ones who care enough
That I finally left this place

That's been so cold
Look at my face
All the stories it will tell I can't erase
The road is long
Just one more song
A little something to remind you when I'm gone
When I'm gone

So this is it
I say goodbye
To this chapter of my ever-changing life
And there's mistakes
The path was long
And I'm sure I'll answer for them when I'm gone
When I'm gone

Joel James Brouse Jr. “Baby Joel” was born on January 19, 1997 in Rapid City, SD to Wanda (Fields) and Joel Brouse Sr. He attended school in Rapid City, SD and Lower Brule, SD. Baby Joel worked various jobs including the Family Dollar, Employment Enterprise, Swingin’ Construction and Dyer Construction Company of America where he was an iron worker.

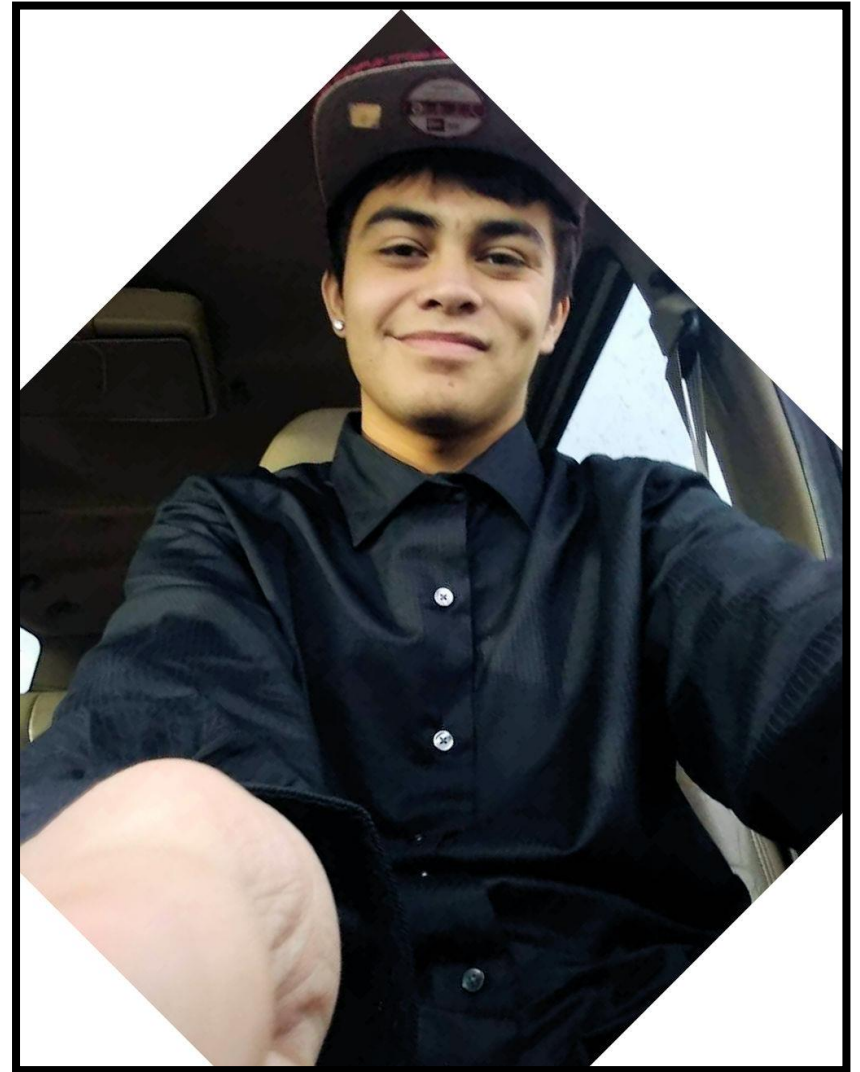

He loved the Green Bay Packers, had a passion for tattoos and music and he loved spending time hanging out with friends. He especially loved spending time with family and loved with everything he had. He never left without a big hug and an “I love you!”. His infectious smile will forever be missed by all who knew him.

Baby Joel is survived by his parents Wanda Fields of Rapid City, SD and Joel Brouse Sr. of Lower Brule, SD; his special mom “Momma K” Kiara Fire Cloud of Lower Brule, SD; his siblings Justice, Angel, Myah, Aaliyah, Jesse, Jenna, and Kelson; maternal grandparents Wanda and Randy Peacock of Rapid City, SD; paternal grandparents Jim and Jan Brouse of Lower Brule, SD; along with numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends too numerous to mention.

Preceding him in death were his baby brother Romeo Brouse and maternal grandfather Harrison Fields.
