Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright! There is a perfect joy and beauty in the everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed: I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last. There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand, do it now, while life remaineth – you shall rest in God's own land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; oh,
the rapture of that meeting oh, the joy to see you come!

Obituary

Anne Claude Wright was born on September 7, 1925, in Atlanta, Ga. To the union of Joseph and Claude (Chandler) Wright. Anne was the youngest of three children; Eunice was her eldest sister and her brother, Willie Earl, was five years older than her. Anne's mother died when she was two years old. She was raised by her mother's sister, Maude (Chandler) Cowins, in Norwood, Georgia.

Norwood was a small farming community that did not have a high school. So, Anne went away to attend high school in Warrenton, Georgia. Ms. Essie Burley operated a boarding house for students attending high school there. While attending school, Anne met a special friend named Nathaniel Jackson. Anne loved to play basketball while she was there and she graduated from Warrenton High School Academy in 1943.

On April 25, 1943, Nathaniel and Anne married and moved to New York, NY. While Nathaniel went away to fight in WWII, Anne worked at the US Naval Yard until the end of the war in 1945.

Anne and Nathaniel moved to New Jersey in 1952 to create a home for their children. To this union, three children were born: Ronald Louis, Cheryl Ann, and Barry Nathan.

The family moved to Paterson, NJ, but then a fire at their home caused them to move to Glen Rock, NJ. Anne was a faithful member to Calvary Baptist Church where she sang in the choir and was an Usher. Anne was also an Eastern Stars Worthy Matron for ten years and a Grand Secretary of the Heroines of Jericho.

Anne loved to sew and made outfits for friends and family. She worked at the Modern Line Dress Company on Haledon Avenue in Paterson, NJ from 1948 until 1958. There they sewed the dress line by Susan Thomas that sold at Saks Fifth Avenue. In 1968, Anne began working at Nabisco Cookie Factory in Fairlawn, NJ. She worked as a Rotary Operator for twenty years and she herself loved to eat hot ginger snaps fresh off the line. In 1988, Anne retired from Nabisco.

In 1994, Anne moved to Cincinnati, Ohio to live with her son Ronald and his family. Anne loved to travel and went on many adventures with her traveling ladies' group of friends. She even became a snowbird one year and lived in Arizona for 6 months.

Anne continued to stay active in church as an Usher at Clinton Springs COG, Frost Street COG, and Mason COG. She also performed musical specials at Mason COG with her family. Anne was a part of the Christian Women's Connection at Mason COG where they worked for the Lord and had fun.

Anne leaves to cherish her memory two sisters-in-law: Bessie Jackson and Mildred Saeed; and a daughter-in-law, Sheila Jackson. Four granddaughters: Tara Courtney, Serena Prince, Tia Prince, Nija Joell (Qavie), eleven great-grandchildren, and eight great-great-grandchildren. Her companion, Ernest Green; special friends Katherine Maupin and Chantelle Thomas; a loving church family and many more.
