*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the LORD for ever.*

Amelia Anne "Amy" Mitchell, 55, of Little Rock, Arkansas left this earth on July 30, 2020. She was greeted in Heaven by her father, Howard Lynn "H.L." Mitchell and her best friend, Dawne Michelle "Dante" Pounders.

Amy attended McClellan High School in Little Rock, graduating in 1982. She went on to attend the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. She worked as a paralegal for Mitchell Law Firm in Little Rock, and Godwin & Ronquillo in Dallas, Texas.

She is survived by her mother, Barbara Anne Barksdale Mitchell of Little Rock, her brother, and primary caregiver, John Michael Mitchell of Bryant, Patrick Lynn Mitchell of Little Rock, and David Matthew Mitchell of Cabot.

Amy is also survived by her niece, Lisa Nicole Mitchell of Little Rock, and her nephews, Michael Lynn Mitchell (Sarah Jo) of Bryant, David Matthew Mitchell Jr. of Gulf Shores, Alabama and Andrew Logan Mitchell (Molly Katlyn) of Fort Bragg, North Carolina. She is also survived by a host of great-nieces and nephews; each having stolen a piece of her heart.

Amy loved big. If you were lucky enough to call her a friend, you know this well. She was rarely without a smile on her face, and a song on her lips. She was extremely intelligent, but could never find her car keys. She was headstrong, yet compassionate. She was a talker and a doer.

Amy was a member of the National Cutting Horse Association. Second only to family and friends, was her love of horses; her greatest love Annie Bill Lena, her prized cutting horse of 31 years. Amy was a proud cowgirl and loved a good rodeo. Her horses were her children and she treated them as such.
