Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear now evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Mrs. Doris Burrough Hervey

Doris Burrough Hervey, 83, of Mineola, passed away on January 23, 2025. She was born on August 22, 1941, in Mineola, Texas, to Robert Tillman and Johnnie Mae Freeman. Doris spent the majority of her life in the Wood County community, where she became deeply rooted in her faith and family.

One of Doris's greatest accomplishments was living a life dedicated to Christ. She was a devoted and long-time member of Freeman Chapel, which was founded by her family, before becoming a member of Muddy Creek Baptist Church in her later years. Her greatest life lesson was to trust Jesus, and her faith guided her every step of the way.

Doris married Clyde "Cricket" Hervey in 1977. Together, they shared many precious memories, especially those made with their children. She graduated from Lincoln High School in Dallas, after which she worked as a seamstress. In her spare time, Doris enjoyed making beautiful floral arrangements, cooking, and being actively involved in church activities.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and devotion to her family. Doris will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Doris is preceded in death by her husband, Clyde Ray Hervey; parents, Robert Tillman and Johnnie Mae Freeman; her sister, Mary Eulene Chesser; two aunts, Annie Belle Lacy and Willie Kay Kelly; and one son, Aaron Darnell Burrough.

Footprints in the Sand

One night I dreamed a dream.

As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.

Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.

For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,

One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life flashed before me,

I looked back at the footprints in the sand.

I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,

especially at the very lowest and saddest times,

there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.

"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,

You'd walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,

there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why,

when I needed You the most, You would leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child,

I love you and will never leave you

Never, ever, during your trials and testings.

When you saw only one set of footprints,

It was then that I carried you."
