OF LIFE

Joseph "Joey" Ray Powell

January 5, 1955 – June 10, 2026

Your presence we miss, your memory we treasure, loving you always, forgetting you never.

LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Joseph Ray Powell lovingly known as Joey, age 71, passed away on June 10, 2026.

Born on January 5, 1955, in Yazoo City, Mississippi, Joey lived a life defined by hard work, independence, and a love for his family.

A faithful member of Short Creek Baptist Church, Joey valued his faith and the fellowship of his church family throughout his life.

Joey was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Jennifer Powell; his father, Earl Powell; his mother, Bettye Faye Powell; his brother, Earl Wayne Powell; his paternal grandparents, Howard and Vallie Powell; and his maternal grandparents, Marlin and Vadie Riser.

Joey is survived by his beloved wife, Karen Powell (McGinty); his son, Thomas (Tasha) Powell; his half-brother, Michael Powell; his half-sister, Stephanie McGarrh; and his cherished grandchildren, Kelsey (Jonathan) Manor, Cade Anderson, Landon Powell, and Lainey Powell.

Joey will be remembered for his love of the road, his passion for motorcycles, his steadfast nature, and the dedication he showed to his family throughout his life. His presence, stories, and spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Public services celebrating Joey's life will be held on Saturday, June 20, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. at Short Creek Baptist Church in Yazoo City, Mississippi. Family and friends are invited to attend as they gather to honor and remember his life.

Though he is no longer with us, the memories he created and the love he shared will remain in the hearts of his family and friends forever.
