Obituary

Juerita Pritchett was born on August 23, 1952, in Chicago, Illinois, to Mamie Odell (Wallace) Pritchett and William Pritchett. She graduated from Allegan High School, where she proudly made history as the school's first Black cheerleader. Juerita continued her education at Western Michigan University and went on to build a successful career, working many years with Perrigo. Later she retired as a supervisor from Parker Hanafin. Known for her vibrant spirit and love for life, Juerita enjoyed shopping at Goodwill stores near and far, taking road trips to dine at her favorite restaurants, and exploring new places through travel.

Juerita is preceded in death by her mother Mamie Pritchett, father William Pritchett, brothers William E. Pritchett and James F. Pritchett, and niece Carole Greene Pritchett.

Juerita is survived by her beloved daughter, Michelle Tatum; four cherished granddaughters, Kinyeta Tatum, Keyona Tatum, Kandice Tatum-Tinsley, and Kharlie Tatum, five great-grandchildren. Her devoted brother, Paul "Big Moe" Pritchett; and her loving sister, Gloria Luttrell, and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
