Obituary

"I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith." 2 Timothy 4:7

On Tuesday afternoon, September 19, 2023, Timothy John Woodson closed his weary eyes, released his soul, and peacefully went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Timothy was the son of the late Joseph Woodson Sr. and Virginia Asalee Purvis (nee Tiller). He was born November 30, 1957, in Trenton, New Jersey. At a tender age his family relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. He was raised in East Baltimore on Federal Street.

Timothy attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He was trained and employed with "The Arc Baltimore." He held several jobs in landscaping and janitorial services. He enjoyed his job and working in the community. He especially enjoyed his "Pay Days." These were the days, he loved to purchase special treats for his mother from the old Belair Market. Timothy Loved, Cherished and Respected his mother. His favorite saying was, "My Mother did not raise a fool."

In Scripture, the difference between a wise and a foolish person is not a matter of intellectual ability, but a matter of one's positional standing in Christ, as well as knowledge of the Word of God. Timothy accepted Christ as His Lord and Savior and received the Right Hand of Fellowship at the First Faith Temple Baptist Church. As Timothy gather on the Sabbath, he sang in the choir and join with other members together as one body, and praised God with one voice. He recognized that God gives each of us different gifts. At the end of the day, we all are called, wanted, and expected to sing. His favorite song was "I won't complain." In Philippians 2:14, Paul says, "Do everything without complaining and arguing."

Timothy was the 6th child of 11 children. He loved his siblings and family. His mother's home was the family gathering place for Grandparents, Great Uncles, Great Aunts, Uncles, Aunts, and Cousins. The food, music, dancing, and laughter were his favorites. He truly loved to dance especially to "Get on the Good Foot" by James Brown. Being consistent with the song, "Get on the Good Foot," Timothy knew the song meant getting off to the right start. He leaves an indelible imprint of love, joy, and a profound record of championing and catalyzing others in finding their strength and values.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: six sisters Paulette Purvis, Harriett Sharp (James), Ethel Brown (Markham), Wanda Boyd (Nathaniel), Kimberly Davis (Kevin), Rosa Bright; four brothers Harold Purvis Jr. (Robbin), Joseph Woodson Jr. (Cheryl), Bernie Delay, Abraham Bright; 11 nephews, 10 nieces, great nephews, great nieces, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his two brothers Johnny Reese Woodson and David Woodson.

The Broken Chain

We didn't know the day that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly and in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories. Your love is still our guide.
Though we cannot see you, you are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
As God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

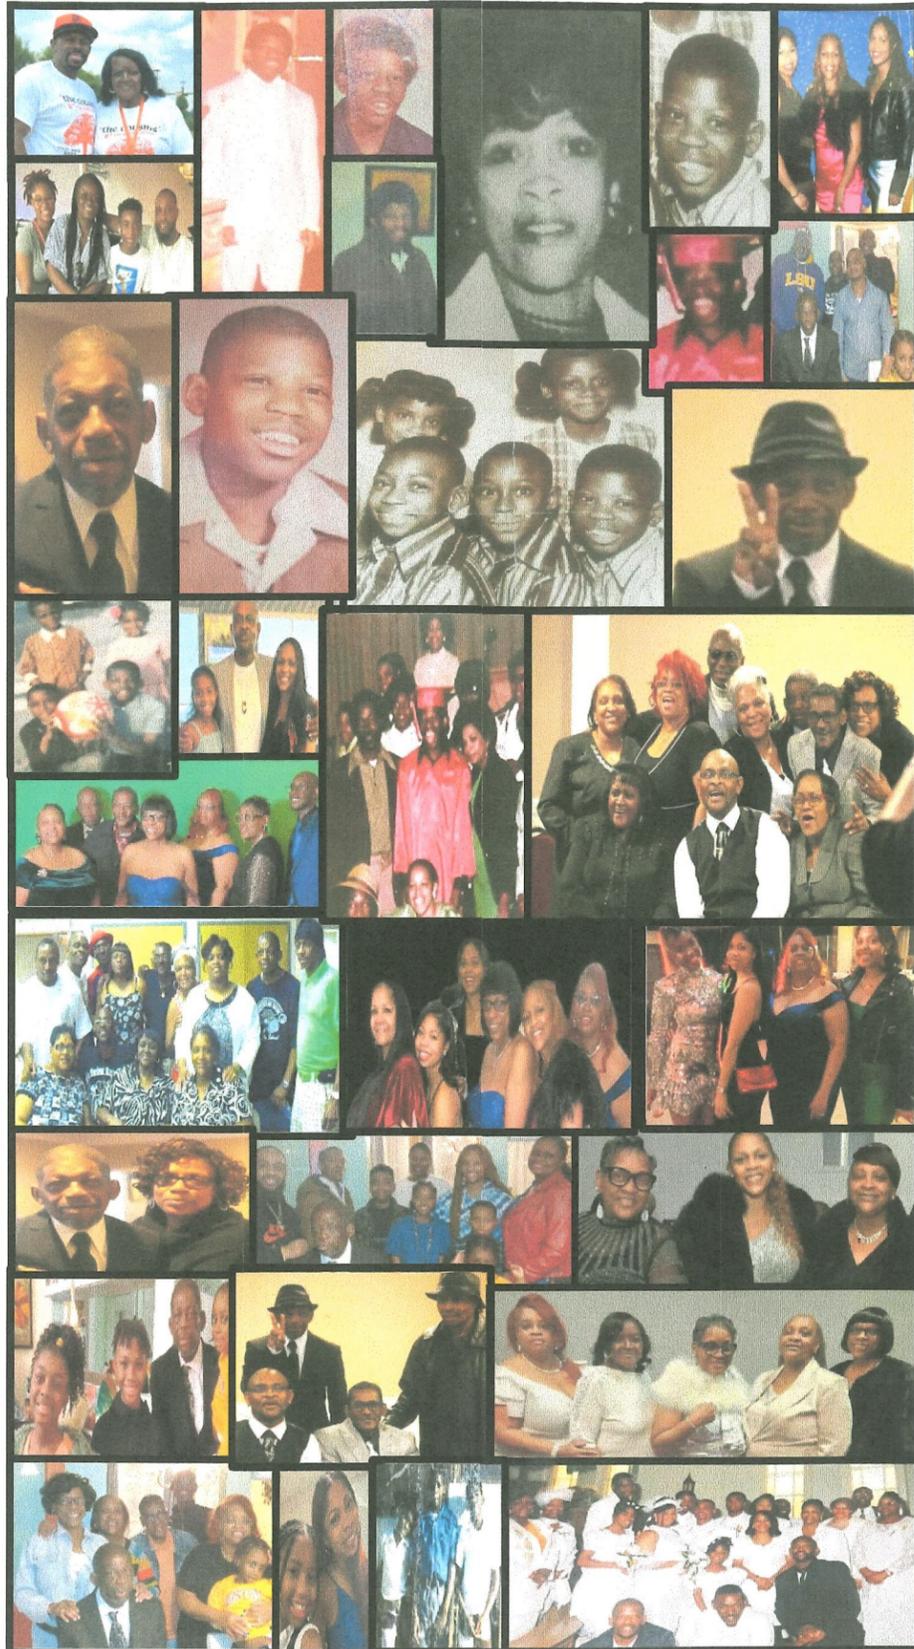

Lovingly Submitted, Your Sisters & Brothers

for my Uncle

I have so many memories
Of the times we spent together,
And even though you're no longer here,
I'll cherish them forever.
I miss your laughter so much
and the mischief in your smile.
When I feel the sadness welling up
I'll remember it a while.
For though you are no longer here,
You'll never be truly gone.
So long as I have these memories,
Your spirit will carry on.
So until I see your smile again,
I'll hold you in my heart and mind.
A shining example, my uncle
Of the best of humankind.
