Precious Memories

Forever In Our Hearts

Little did we know that morning
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Obituary

Doris Deloris Hauser Floyd Elliott quietly went home to be with the Lord on July 28, 2025. Born on March 10, 1930 in Yadkinville, NC, she was the daughter of Reverend Daniel and Callie V. Hauser. Raised in the church, Doris was a God-fearing woman whose faith remained a central part of her life.

She dedicated her career to nursing, beginning at Freedman's Hospital in Washington, DC, now part of Howard University Hospital later retiring as a LPN from Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Doris had a passion for shopping and was known for her lively flea market booth, where she sold her famous peanut brittle and Obama memorabilia.

As her health declined, Doris moved from Maryland to Pennsylvania to live with her eldest daughter, Dr. Jannis Floyd. Eventually, both relocated three years ago to Winston-Salem where Doris was lovingly cared for by her son, Steven and granddaughters, Yvonne and Yvette.
In recent months, she often recited the Lord's Prayer and softly called out the names of her mother and siblings, day and night. It was clear-Momma was tired and ready to go home to them.

Doris was preceded in death by: her parents; her first husband, James; her second husband, Junius; her sisters: Beaulah, Martha, Fannie, Dora, and Velma; and her brothers: Martin, Brady, Bernard, Leonard, Reginald and David.

She leaves behind a legacy of love in the hearts of her children: Jannis, Steven, Lisa (Don), Daniel, and Junius, Jr.; her granddaughters: Yvonne and Yvette; her sister, Mary Oleana; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

With My Love

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is done
But here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
There is no longing for the past
So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.
