

OBITUARY

Johnny Wayne Siratt Jr., aged 41, passed away on October 15, 2025, in Fort Worth, Texas, where he was born on May 31, 1984. He was a beloved husband, father, son, and brother, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories.

Johnny is survived by his devoted wife, Jennifer Ashley, and his three adoring children: Merrick, Haiden, and Tyler Siratt. He held his role as a father close to his heart, embracing the joys and challenges of parenthood with passion and dedication. He will be deeply missed by his mother, Rebecca (Harper) Siratt, and his loving sister, Beverly Stephens, who is married to Phillip Kilcrease. Johnny also leaves behind his maternal grandparents, Elzane and Bradley Harper, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends who will remember him fondly.

Johnny was known for his love of music, particularly Alternative Rock, and enjoyed playing guitar, which allowed him to express his creativity. He found joy in online gaming with friends, where he built lasting bonds through shared adventures. An avid fisherman and an animal lover, he found peace in the simple moments spent outdoors and the companionship of his beloved dogs, Snickers and Talley.

He was preceded in death by his father, Johnny Wayne Siratt, Sr.; his paternal grandparents, Bud and Maureen Siratt; his aunt, Lois Rutledge; and his father and mother-in-law, James and Michelle Ashley.

Johnny Wayne Siratt Jr. will be remembered not only for his passions and interests but for the love he bestowed upon his family and friends throughout his life. His warm spirit and unwavering devotion will continue to resonate in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

Johnny Wayne Siratt, Jr.

HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be;
So he put his arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to me".
With tearful eyes we watched
And saw you pass away;
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.
