

LOOK FOR ME IN RAINBOWS

Time for me to go now. I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.
Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.
It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.
Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment, and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.
Just wish me to be near you,
And I'll be there with you.

IN APPRECIATION

We are indebted to the hospice care staff, physicians, (Dr. Singh SP.), hospital employees, and other healthcare professionals. Specifically, Fountain View Care Center, for their patience, counsel, and most importantly, excellent care.

We appreciate the funeral directors and the travel professionals. Also, special thanks to Helen and her husband for their love and devotion, and longtime personal friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Creswell.

Whatever your contribution, it has helped to make the inevitable more acceptable. It is only by the grace of God, and your love and support, that we are able to bear this loss. From each one of us to all of you, we say thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

OBITUARY

Corinda Scott Hall made her earthly transition on Saturday, October 6, 2018, in Lakewood, New Jersey. She was born on June 22, 1925, at Monmouth Medical Center, Long Branch, New Jersey, but lived most of her adult life in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Corinda was nurtured and cared for by her adoptive parents, James and Mary Scott. She spent her formative years attending the Red Bank School System and subsequently obtained an Associate degree from Brookdale Community College in Tinton Falls, New Jersey.

Corinda was determined to follow her heart and make a new life for herself in the Northeast. There her life presented a new way of positive growth with her new friend, Ike. New surroundings, new career, new friends, cold and very cold, but, this is where life had determined she should be. Small in stature, strong, determined, fast forward, emotional, stubborn, and would be complex at times.

She loved music, dancing and a good joke. Corinda was independent and would let you know it. She loved to talk and would keep you on the phone for hours. She had a great love for people and a strong belief in God.

We, the family, pay homage to our biological grandmother, Lucy Dubois, for the blessing of her giving birth to our Corinda. We celebrate this life of our mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Corinda is predeceased by her husband, Harold Moss; mother, Lucy Dubois; adoptive parents, Mary and James Scott; one sister, Carolyn Adams; grandson, Malik Walters; and nephews, Mark and Carl Adams.

She leaves her memory to cherish her daughters, Sharon Kelley (Felix Kelley), and Valerie Mills; son, Harold Raymond Moss; grandchildren, Troy, Kelly, Michelle Walters, Monique Mills, Tamanikka Moss-Mills; and a host of great-grandchildren; great-great grandchildren; and close family friends, Gwendolyn Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Creswell.

Our beloved family roots originated from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, a rich legacy and history. We thank God for her life.
