

CELEBRATION of LIFE

Loving Tribute

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
And from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion
And my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.

Edna
RENEE LYLES

MARCH 25, 1987 ~ FEBRUARY 5, 2025

Her Journey

In loving memory of Edna Renee Lyles, born on March 25, 1987, in the heart of Maryland, who departed this world prematurely on February 5, 2025, in Accokeek, Maryland. She was known affectionately as "Nae". Edna was a brilliant light within her family and community, shining brightly through her unique spirit and generous heart.

Edna dedicated her life to the service of others as a devoted home health aide, earning the love and respect of her patients through her unwavering commitment to their well-being. Her genuine care transformed the lives she touched, making every day brighter with her kind smile and feisty personality. A true people person, her innate ability to connect with others made her not just a caregiver but a beloved companion to those fortunate enough to know her.

A high school diploma from the Charles County Public School System set the foundation for Edna's career, but it was her zest for life that truly defined her. She could often be found on the dance floor, exuding energy and inviting others to join her in joyful celebration. Edna loved to party and was known for her infectious laughter, her hip shooting one-liners, and her visionary catchphrase, famously proclaiming, "boy or girl bye." She was a true party starter, embracing any occasion with a spirit of revelry that was unparalleled.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Edna was a heartfelt supporter of children, devoted to their happiness and success. An ardent Dallas Cowboys fan, she exhibited loyalty not just to her team but to those she cared for, passionately rooting for them in moments of triumph and trials alike. She adored the colors blue and gray, and her infectious enthusiasm made instant friends of strangers and long-lasting connections among acquaintances.

Edna's departure leaves a void in her family, her husband, Joseph Peen; sons, Josiah Penn and Kingston Key; father, William Leroy Lyles; mother, Doris Theresa Cole; beloved siblings, Tyrone, Christina, Leroy (Tiffany), Jackie, Anthony (Shawnisha), Ashley, Albert (Tisheika), as well as a host of aunts and uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins, but also in the hearts of her friends and community. They stand together, united in grief, cherishing the memories and legacies that she leaves behind.

She was preceded in death by her beloved son, Nathaniel Penn.
