

Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

Yves Bertrand Sincere, a dedicated professional and beloved family man, passed away on March 8, 2026, in Naples, Florida. Born on October 9, 1967, in Cayes, Haiti, Yves was known among his friends and family simply as "Yves." Over the course of his life, he earned a reputation as a hard worker who deeply valued the importance of helping others.

Yves devoted 24 years of his career to the Hilton Hotel, where his commitment and reliability made him a trusted and valued employee. Those who knew him remember Yves for his steadfast work ethic and his unwavering dedication to the service of others. His reliability was a hallmark of his character and something that colleagues and loved ones alike appreciated deeply.

Outside of his professional life, Yves found joy in a variety of personal interests. He loved dancing and enjoyed the flavors of Haitian cuisine. An avid sports fan, Yves followed the Miami Heat with enthusiasm and had a passion for both football and soccer. These hobbies reflected his vibrant personality and his ability to find happiness in simple pleasures.

Yves was a cherished husband to Delene Mezier and a devoted father to seven children: sons Scott Sincere, Brandon Sincere, Michael Brun, Jeffrey Joseph, Anderson Joseph; daughters Manalitha Brun and Teneisha Joseph. His family was the center of his life, and his legacy will continue through them. He is also remembered as the son of the late Lamartiniere Sincere and Denise Romelus.

Yves Bertrand Sincere's life was marked by dedication, kindness, and a generous spirit. He will be remembered not only for his professional achievements and hard work but also for the warmth and support he extended to those around him. His memory will remain a guiding light for his family and all who had the privilege to know him.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:*

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

*He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk
through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the Lord for ever.*
