

OBITUARY

Janice Sharron Saylor Sain Shivers passed away on June 21, 2026, in Fort Worth, on the 10th anniversary of when her grandson, Johnathan Blake, went to be with the Lord. She was born on March 4, 1946, in Itasca. Janice's journey was one defined by family, unwavering support, and resilience. Janice's love of family formed the cornerstone of her days, and she devoted herself to nurturing the bonds that held her loved ones close. Her generous spirit brightened family gatherings, holidays, and everyday moments alike. Whether offering a kind word, open arms, or sage advice, Janice's presence was a source of comfort and joy. She was a great storyteller and memory keeper; always keeping the family connected in good and bad times.

During Janice's career, she made a lasting impact at Walls, Lorch Westway, Bogart, and Texell prior to her tenure at Johns Manville. Before retiring, Janice worked as a servicer for Johns Manville for 27 years. Among her many joys, one of her favorites was creating personalized name plaques for her grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins—handmade treasures she crafted with care and proudly gifted for their walls.

Janice shared 31 years of marriage with her husband, Freddy. She affectionately called him her "brown-eyed handsome man," and he lovingly referred to her as "his green-eyed beauty," a reflection of the deep bond they shared throughout their life together.

She was preceded in death by her son, Audy Sain, Sr.; grandson, Johnathan Blake; parents, Robert Guidel Saylor and Ruby Faye Davis; siblings, Robert Saylor, Faidel Hester, Elsie Hudson, and Mona Kay Robinson, and first husband, Junior Sain.

Janice is survived by her husband, Freddy Shivers of Cleburne; children: Sammy Sain of Crowley, Sharron Sain Blake of Cleburne, April Brown and Brittany Shivers of Cleburne; grandchildren, Sammy E. Sain, Adam Sain, Amber Sain Romero, Audy Sain, Shawn Sain, Jason Sain, Chelesea Bedford, Ashley Thornton, and Machel Thornton, and 27 beautiful great-grandchildren.

Janice Sharron Saylor Sain Shivers leaves behind a tapestry of cherished memories, the echoes of laughter and love, and a family strengthened by her enduring influence. Her warmth, kindness, and steadfast devotion will be deeply missed.

Celebrating the Life of

Janice Sharron Saylor Sain Shivers

To Those I Love

*While I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears;
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near..
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home".*
