

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be;
So He put his arms around you
and whispered,
“Come with Me.”
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away.
Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.
A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!

Obituary

Eboni S. Wells was born on July 8, 1973, to James and Linda Maxberry. She was the first daughter born to that union. Eboni was born and raised in Lincoln Heights, Ohio, where she resided until she was called to her heavenly home.

Eboni spent most of her youth cheerleading and dancing for Lincoln Heights (Sparketts). As a teen, Eboni attended Princeton High School.

During her lifetime, Eboni cultivated and cherished many friendships she obtained through her generosity, intellect, and humor. She was a devoted mother, a loving daughter, a loving grandmother, a caring sister, a sweet aunt, and a loyal friend.

Eboni's passing will undoubtedly leave a void, but we can all keep her memories close to our hearts.

Eboni was preceded in death by her father, James. She leaves to cherish her memory: her two daughters, Bianca Maxberry and Destini Wells; her precious grandchildren, Kaiden, Kelsea, Kayleigh, Khylen, and Khya; her mother, Linda Maxberry; and three brothers, Ahmund (Maria), Lamin (Sadrina), and James Lewis, Jr. (Eboni). She also leaves behind two nephews, Keewontay and Jordan; one niece, Orion; and a host of extended family and dear friends.
