Lord, thank You for Your word and for all of the truth and wisdom that it contains. Please prepare my heart to receive your word. Remove the stones from the soil of my heart and the weeds from my life so that I may be ready to hear your word, understand Your word, and live Your word for the glory of your name. In Jesus' name, amen.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Lillie Bell Adams Tucker was born on August 27, 1937, to Simmie Cooper (father) and Ivory Earl Clark Cooper (mother), both of Tchula, MS. She was preceded in death by her parents; her spouse: Willie (Pig) Tucker; and two sons: Willie (Little Man) Tucker and Eugene Tucker.

Lillie was a strong and faithful Christian lady who loved the Lord and confessed Christ at an early age. She grew up in and around the Holmes County area where she attended school and participated in various jobs and activities that she enjoyed. Fishing was her passion. She was a beautiful and hard-working individual who had a big heart and always made sure everybody was alright. She loved life, had such a fun and lively spirit that made her a joy to be around. To everyone, she became affectionately known as "Mon", "Ms. Bell" or just "Bell" to all who knew her.

Bell leaves to cherish her memories her siblings, one brother: Willie Charles Noel of Yazoo City, MS; one sister: Shirley Cooper of Chicago, IL; six sons: Milton (Ben) Adams (Pricilla) of Lexington, MS, Cleon (Buster) Tucker, Simmie Lee Tucker, and Derrick Adams Tucker, all of Tchula, MS, Glenn Tucker of Carrollton, TX and Charles D. Tucker (Tameka) of Elkhart, IN; two daughters: Shirley Ann Tucker Williams (the late David) of McKinney, TX and Tressy Ann Stowers, of Chicago, IL; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
