

By: Lucile Ellison

Is there a God who dwells above--
A God whose heart is filled with love--
A God who hears and answers prayer,
A God who's always just and fair?
Or is there not a God at All?
Oh, answer this before His call.

As for myself I've found the way;
God walks with me from day to day.
And when He calls, my life complete,
It will be He I'll gladly meet.
