THE LIFE & LEGACY

Herbert Wilson, known as "BoBo," was born on April 3, 1941, in Savannah, Georgia. His fifth-grade teacher gave him the nickname, reflecting his gentle nature. He attended West Savannah School and Tompkins High School, where he played football, building his strength and character. At 18, he earned his TWIC card and began a 40-year career with the International Longshoremen's Association, loving his work until retirement.

After retiring, Herbert enjoyed family time and visiting Ruth Byck Adult Care Services, where he played cards and checkers and was recognized for his style, winning Best Dressed multiple times. A devoted father, he was known for his quiet strength and integrity. As his health declined, his daughter Pamela cared for him, ensuring his retirement was filled with love. Herbert passed away peacefully on August 4, 2025.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rosa Wilson and Lennix Hamilton; his daughter, Priscilla Wilson; his brothers, James Wilson, Dan Wilson, Lee Wilson, and Elijah Simmons; and his stepdaughters, Edna Mae Brown and LaShawnda Hunter.

Herbert leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories through his daughters Pamela Odom (Jesse) and Felithia Patterson (Timothy); his sons Herbert Wilson Jr., James L. Wilson, and Ronnie L. Wilson; his sister Elnora Adams; and his brother John Simmons (Princetta). He is also survived by his stepchildren Ruth Wilson, Larry Sanders (Lynn), Lily Ellison, Catherine Young (Phillip), Mary Odom Manies (Jimmie), Gus Odom, Daniel Hunter, and Latrell Hunter, along with eight grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. ~"Psalm 116:15

YOUR SMILE

*Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hand I cannot touch
Still I have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.*

*Your memory is my keepsake with which we will never part.
God has you in His keeping
I have you in my heart.*

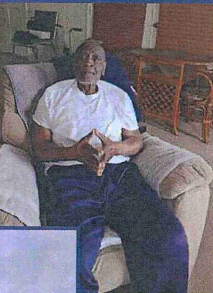

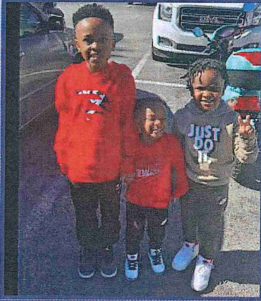

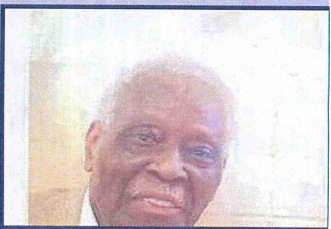

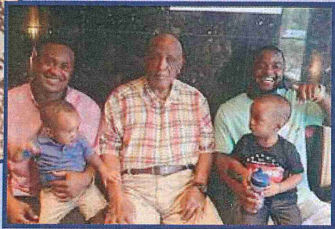

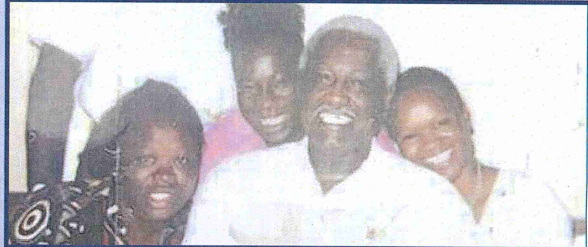

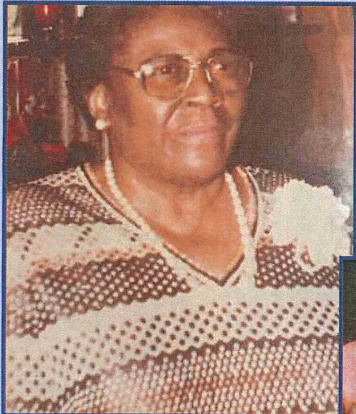

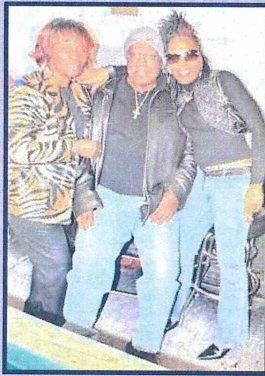

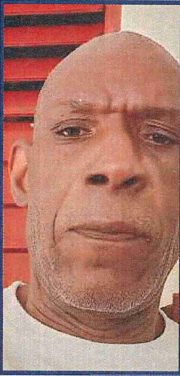

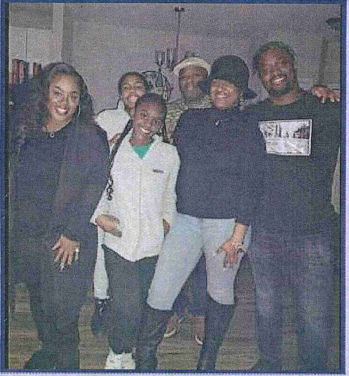

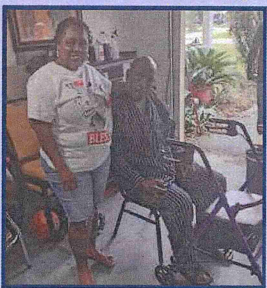

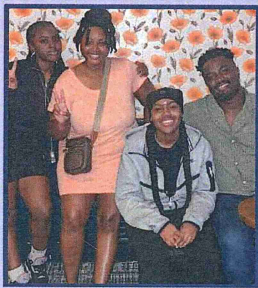

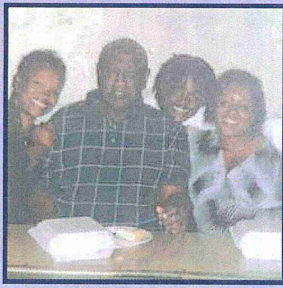

*It is sad to walk the road alone,
Instead of side by side.
But to all, there comes a moment
When the ways of life divide.*

*You gave me years of happiness
Then came sorrow and tears
But you left me beautiful memories
I will treasure through the years.*

Pam

*You held my hand when I was small
You caught me when I fell
You are the hero of my childhood
And my later years as well
And every time I think of you
My heart still fills with pride
Though I will always miss you dad
I know you're by my side
In laughter and in sorrow
In sunshine and in rain
I know you're watching over me
Until we meet again*
