My Precious Grandma

I'm so thankful and blessed to have had you in my life. thank you for being the best grandmother any girl could ask for. You wasn't just my grandmother, you were also my role model. I've looked up to you in so many ways. We all were so lucky to have a grandmother and losing you hurts deeply. As we grieve your absence, we celebrate the countless ways you blessed our lives. you will forever live on through each and every one of us. We will continue to make you proud.

Love, Tyler and Khloe

MawMaw you watched over me while you were here, now since you're there, watch over my village while I'm here.

Love Devonta

It's hard to believe you are gone. You were the family's comedian. You always made us laugh. You were the best of the best. It's going to be hard not having you around anymore. I will miss you day in and day out. I know you're watching over all of us and you wouldn't want us to grieve. You would want us to get back up and keep fighting. I love you grandma aka "Thom Thom".

Expressions from the Grandchildren

Mawmaw

When I think about my grandma, I think about so many memories. One thing everybody who knew her probably knows is that she wasn't afraid to say what was on her mind. She would cuss you out in a heartbeat, but that's just who she was—and honestly, that's one of the things we're all going to miss about her. Growing up, she would keep me and my cousins during the summers. Looking back on it now, we used to joke and call it boot camp because she was going to make sure we stayed in line. At the time, we probably didn't always appreciate it, but those summers and those memories are things I'll carry with me forever. And I'll never forget when I had a loose tooth. She would tell me she was just going to wiggle it, and somehow, before I knew what happened, that tooth was gone. I definitely wasn't happy about it then, but now I can look back and laugh about it. But beyond all the funny memories, my grandma was strong. She showed strength in the way she lived and in the way she carried herself. She was tough, and even when life wasn't easy, she kept going. That's something I truly admire about her and something I hope to carry with me for the rest of my life.
Grandma, we're going to miss your voice, your personality, your strength, and even those moments when you got on our nerves. But more than anything, we're going to miss having you here.
This isn't goodbye because the memories you gave us will always be here. You'll always be a part of us, and you'll always be remembered. I love you, Grandma, and I'll miss you forever.
Latrell Shelley

Dear Mamaw,

First off, I just want to say thank you. Thank you for being the best grandmother that my brothers, my cousins, and I could ever ask for. All the life lessons you taught us, the memories we shared, and the time we spent together will be cherished and remembered forever. I'll never forget every moment that me and my brothers shared and laughed with you.

Never would I have thought that I'd have to say goodbye to you so soon. I thought, maybe—hopefully—we would have another 20+ years together. But we all have our time to go, and I just wish I had one final chance to tell you goodbye and tell you how much I love you.

At this moment, none of us is okay, and none of us was ready to say goodbye to you. You gave me the best mother I could ever ask for, the best aunts, and the best uncle. Through them, you gave me a family that has taught me—and continues to teach me—the values and lessons I need to live a great life. I'm so glad you got to meet and witness little pissy (Ivy Sage) and Jakari living in this world. They would've loved to be around you always just as me and the rest of your grandkids did.

Just know that I will forever honor you, your legacy, and our family name. I promise you that everything I do this season and everything I accomplish going forward will be for you and for our people. I'll carry your love, your lessons, and your memory with me wherever I go.

I love you forever, and I always will. We all do. Until we meet again. Rest well now, Mawmaw. We love you.
