REMEMBERING

Pam

Our mother, Pamela Laverne Woodcox, was born in Kansas City, Kansas, on May 28, 1959 to Charles L. Harris Sr. and Mary E. Harris-Porter.

Pam was united in holy matrimony with the love of her life, Hilliard Woodcox Sr., and to this union, a beautiful blessing of seven children was added to the family.

To know Pam was to know a woman who didn't just talk about love—she lived it. Pam took care of so many children that we can't even begin to count them. She would give you the shirt off her back and never, ever backed down from a fight. Pam didn't play when it came to her grandchildren. In her eyes, they never did any wrong—and at the same time, she would cuss them out.

Pam took so many children to church and rode the church van. The van would be so full of her children that they had to find other transportation for the rest of the church folk. Pam made sure her children were fed, clothed, and most of all, taught about Jesus Christ. She was a woman who believed in the power of the gospel.

Pam took Proverbs 22:6 to heart: "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Pam provided guidance and instruction to her children, shaping their character and behavior from a young age—"Mary Porter's style."

Pam accepted Christ at an early age and was a devoted member of Mt. Sinai M.B.C. She was a dedicated usher and loved greeting people at the door.

Pam was preceded in death by her father, Charles L. Harris Sr.; two brothers, Charles L. Harris Jr. and Melvin Harris; one son, Antonio Williams; and two nephews, Mark and Melvin Mims.

Pam leaves behind to cherish her memory: her husband, Hilliard Woodcox Sr.; three sons, Hilliard Woodcox Jr. (Tomeka), Kenneth Charles Leon Harris, and Terry Horton Jr., all of Kansas City, Missouri; three daughters, Ta'Nesha Horton, Ta'Shay Horton, and Lameca Williams, all of Kansas City, Missouri; her mother, Mary E. Porter, and stepfather, Laurence Porter, of Kansas City, Kansas; brother-in-law, Timothy Woodcox Sr.; and sister-in-law, Eva Phillips, of Kansas City, Missouri.

She is also survived by 11 sisters: Thea Jackson (Troy), Charlotte Harris, and Margaret, all of Kansas City, Kansas; Veronica Lucas (Nick) of McAllen, Texas; Joan Clark, Deborah Witimire (Garnett), Kim Barrett, Carla Turner, and Carma Robinson, all of Kansas City, Missouri; Ann Clark of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Sherian McQueen (Henry) of Detroit, Michigan; and Pamela McKibben of Las Vegas, Nevada. Pam is also survived by five brothers: Pastor Dr. Seth C. Harris (Karen) of Kansas City, Kansas; Kenneth Harris (Donna), Charles Clark, and Brian Robinson of Kansas City, Missouri; and Larry Clark of Henderson, Nevada. She also leaves behind a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
