Celebration of Life

Marvin Brandon Jr. was born on November 1, 1953, in Dallas, Texas, to Evelyn Brandon and the late Marvin Brandon Sr. As the first of seven children, he was raised with strong values of faith, family, and hard work. He was baptized at Sweet Home Baptist Church in Austin, Texas, and remained devoted to his faith throughout his life.

Marvin was a true jack of all trades and enjoyed building decks and working with his hands. In 1991, he began working as an over-the-road truck driver with Tollie Freightways, where he met his wife, Patricia. They married in 1992, and Marvin embraced her daughters, Patrice and Yvette, as his own.

Marvin served God faithfully as a member and deacon of Living Word Church and later attended Forest Grove Baptist Church. He was preceded in death by his father, Marvin Brandon Sr.; brothers Larry, David, and Charles; grandparents Sterling and Lainy Anderson Sr.; nephew Quincy Brown; and grandson William Javon Kyree Donahue.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife of 42 years, Patricia; stepdaughters Patrice (William) Donahue and Yvette (David) Lux; his mother, Evelyn; sisters Shirley Brandon and Marlene Cash; brothers Kenneth (Michelle) Brandon and Kevin (Keisha) Brandon; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, extended family, friends, and loved ones. Marvin will be remembered for his faith, kindness, hardworking spirit, and love for his family. His legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
