

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me;

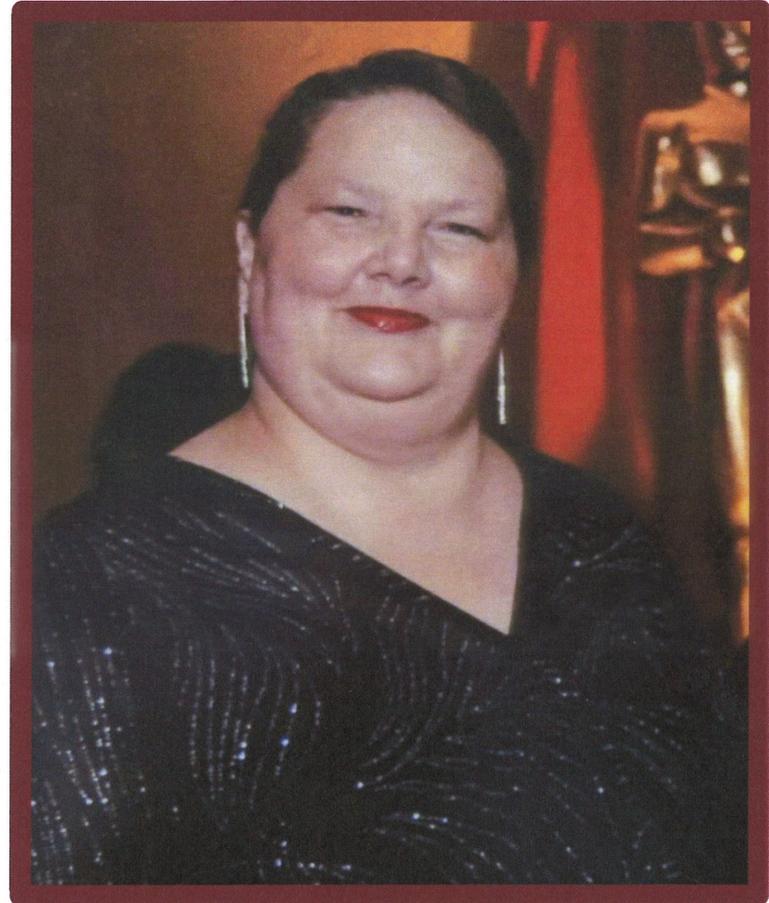

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Hazel Buell Dominguez, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, who departed from this world on September 25, 2025, in Tyler, Texas, at the age of 66. Born on December 20, 1958, in Dallas, Texas, Hazel was a beacon of love and laughter to all who knew her.

Hazel pursued her passion for excellence in her career, proudly serving as an employee at Comerica Bank, where she touched the lives of her colleagues and clients alike. A woman of great warmth, she dedicated her life to her family, who will forever cherish her memory.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Jose Dominguez; her daughters, Ana and Breanna Dominguez; her cherished brother, Jeff Buell; and her loving sister, Joyce Buell and Nephew En'rico McLean, and great nephew Marquis McLean. She was also a proud grandmother to Emily, Alexander, and Nicholas, and a great-grandmother to Alyzah all of whom brought her immeasurable joy.

Hazel was passionate about the arts, especially enjoying horror films, and relished every moment spent dining out or with her beloved animals. Her vivacious spirit and love for life will be deeply missed but will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to know her.

Hazel was preceded in death by parents, Ned Petros and Hazel Petros, sister Evelyn Herrera, and brother, Roger Buell, Niece Shantica Sutherland.

May her memory be a blessing.
