REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

On August 8, 2026, Zellon Meki Jackson, affectionately known as “Zee”, departed this physical life, leaving behind a legacy defined by courage, joy, and an unforgettable spirit.

Zellon, a native of Bishopville, South Carolina, was born April 24, 2006, to Anson Jamel Frierson and Felicia Iris Jackson. Zee lived a life of love and happiness with his family. He was dedicated to his family and friends. He was quiet and didn’t speak much, but would do anything to help his family and friends when asked. He was very dedicated to his church and loved working in the sound room.

Zellon was a 2024 graduate of Lee Central High School. He graduated with honors and a Certified Certificate in Automotive, which he was planning to pursue. He had a passion for race cars, like his father and his brother.

Zee was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Marion C. DuRant.

Zellon leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Felicia Jackson, and his father, Anson Jamel Frierson; his sisters, La’AsiaWilliams (Louis) and Radaya L. Johnson; his brother, Rashawn J. Outen; his grandmothers, Eva DuRant and Annie P. Johnson; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

When we reflect on Zee’s life and his memories, the most important is his dedication and love for his family.

AN ANGEL

An angel whispered in his ear

Believe in me and have no fear

Come with me and take my hand

I will take you to another land

A place of peace, a place of light

Don’t be afraid, just hold on tight

Your earth days are done,

but don’t be sad

Remember all the good times you had

Your loved ones will join you,

so don’t despair

Your have many in heaven,

already waiting there

Your body dies and your soul is free

That’s when you get to fly with me.
