

My brother

Never in a million years did I think we'll be burying you. Losing a sibling is an unbearable pain, I do not wish on anyone. I keep thinking about our last phone call, you kept telling me you loved us, as if you knew it was our last call. I can't believe I'll never hear your voice again, see your face again, or our group facetime with Qwuan and I. You would be so upset that Qwuan and I were always arguing, we would both call you like "get your sibling". Nothing feels right anymore, it feels weird, we're missing a piece of us. It'll always be "Brenda's Four". We're going to be okay; I promise. I love you so much Arty.

- Your little Sister, Kiana

My Cousin

I want to say to Rome "I love you". This hit hard bro I'm going to miss you always on my dresser using my perfume and smell good lotion saying "Ms. Piggy what you cook?" "Can you Do my hair?" and before I can say anything you would say "Come on Dae". My response was "Ya aggy Dawg". Rome would laugh out loud and say "I love you too fatty now come on". I'm going to miss you. I know you & Meme up there crying & laughing cracking jokes. All you ever said while you were down here was you miss him. Now y'all are together again. I miss y'all words can't explain this pain. I'm numb. Y'all left me with memories pain & babies I love y'all. Save me a spot. DAE

Obituary

Sherome Arthur Pight was born June 3, 1991 in Boston, Massachusetts to the late Brenda Jean Pight and Tyrone Tito Jones. Sherome entered eternal rest on November 26, 2023. He was an amazing son, brother, father and cousin. Sherome was affectionally known as "Rome" by his family and friends.

Sherome's life journey began in Boston, Massachusetts, where attended Boston Public Schools. Sherome loved to play sports, especially basketball and he loved spending time with his children. Sherome's smile and laugh were contagious to all that shared his humor. He loved to joke with people and make them laugh.

Sherome was preceded in death by his mother Brenda Jean Pight, and his maternal grandparents Josephine and Arthur Pight.

Those left to cherish Sherome memories: his two children Jakhari Pight and Vyrsai Pight both of Boston MA; his father, Tyrone Jones of Boston MA, three brothers: Anthony J. Pight, Pendral Coakley and Brandon A. Pight all of Boston MA; two sisters: LaShawnda A. Lavender of Alabama and Kiana R. Pight of Boston MA.

Rome loved his nieces and nephews: Brendalise Pight, Royalty Pight, Ariella Pight, Brandon Pight Jr, Camise Pight and Pendral Coakley Jr. He had one godson Junie Burton. As well as numerous aunts and uncles; cousins and other relatives and friends.
