

Letting Go

*The angels gathered near your bed
So very close to you
For they knew the pain and suffering
That you were going through*

*I thought about so many things
As I held tightly to your hand
Oh, how I wished that you were strong
And happy once again*

*But your eyes were looking homeward
To that place beyond the sky
Where Jesus held His outstretched arms
It was time to say "goodbye"*

*I struggled with my selfish thoughts
For I wanted you to stay
So we could walk & talk again
Like we did—just yesterday*

*But Jesus knew the answer
And I knew He loved you so
So I have to you life's greatest gift
The gift of letting go*

*Now my heart will carry memories
Of love you gave to me
Until we meet again in Heaven
Where the best is yet to be*

*Amazing grace!
How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.*

*Amazing grace!
How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.*

Frances was born on May 22, 1936 in Shawnee, OK to her parents, Ernest and Jewel Henry. Frances was a good, strong woman who took excellent care of her family. She was an outstanding mother to her five children and an exceptional grandmother to her many grandchildren. When her husband was down and unable to work, Frances stepped up and worked hard to support her family. She was a gorgeous woman who loved her "bling bling" of sequins and flashy clothes and jewelry. She enjoyed knitting and listening to country music on her radio. She loved to talk on the phone and called her family at almost any time of the day or night to ask, "Whatcha doin'?" Her animals were part of her family and she loved them dearly. Frances lived for her family and loved spending time with her grandchildren and had a special place in her heart for her sons-in-law.

Frances was preceded in death by her parents, daughter-in-law, Beverly Davis, brothers, Troy Henry and Cecil Henry, and her little dogs, Tinkerbelle and Trixie 2.

Surviving family include her daughter, Teresa Crane and husband Charles of Shawnee and their children: Charles Ray Crane, Jr., Jeremiah Dustin Crane, and Destiny Nicole Crane, daughter, Charlotte Williams and husband Jimmy of Shawnee and their children: Millie Marie Walker, Willie Dell Walker, Terry Duncan, Krystal Duncan, Misha Romero, Steven Williams, Monica Mitchell, Jimmy Joseph Williams, and Stephanie Williams, son, Johnny Lee Davis and wife Elene of Eufaula and their children: Johnny Lee Davis, Jr., Shelly Dawn Davis, Lacy Davis, and Daniel Davis, son Ernest Davis of Shawnee and his children: Ernest Davis, Angela Turner, Brian Davis and Michael Davis, son, Harvey Davis and wife Sandra of Shawnee and their children: Anthony Laflame, Jeff Laflame, and Wade Laflame, as well as many great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends. She is also survived by her hairy grandsons, Buddy and Trixie Dixie.

The family would like to send a special "thank you" to the staff at The Regency for their compassionate care of Frances at the end of her life. Good Shepherd Hospice was also a blessing to Frances and her family especially nurses, Carla, Michelle, Dawn and Laura. Thanks to all.
