

In Loving Memory of

JENNY HANKIEWICH

MAY 25, 1932 – DECEMBER 29, 2015

PRAYER SERVICE

Friday, January 1, 2016, at 7:00 p.m.

Descent of the Holy Spirit Ukrainian Catholic Church
Wadena, Saskatchewan

FUNERAL SERVICE

Saturday, January 2, 2016, at 1:00 p.m.

Descent of the Holy Spirit Ukrainian Catholic Church
Wadena, Saskatchewan

Officiating: Father Jeffrey Stephaniuk

Cantor: Bill Chorney

Memorial Book: Amy Atkin, Kerri-Lynn Hankewich
Cross-bearer: Helen Kralky

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

All those in attendance today

ACTIVE PALLBEARERS

Devin Hankewich	Todd Hankewich
Jason Hankewich	Craig Macnab
Jesse Lafontaine	Regan Reineke

INTERMENT

Quill Lake Cemetery
Quill Lake, Saskatchewan

OBITUARY

Jenny Hankewich passed away peacefully at Quill Plains Centennial Lodge in Watson, Sask., on December 29, 2015, with her family by her side.

Jenny was born on May 25, 1932, on a farm north of Clair, Sask., the third and youngest child born to Andrew and Fanny Luchkanych. She was raised on this family farm and attended Hunter's Hill School three miles away.

She married Paul Hankewich on October 22, 1950, and they moved to their farm in the Ponass Lake area. There they raised a family of five, three sons and two daughters: Michael, Daniel, Cathy, Beverly and Jim. They remained on the farm until 1997 when they moved to Quill Lake. They enjoyed their retirement by spending time with family and friends and they were able to travel to Alaska, British Columbia and Ontario. They were also able to celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary with family last October 22.

Jenny was a hard-working and very courageous woman. She took a lot of pride in her flowers and vegetable garden. Her freezers were always full. She was an awesome cook and took a lot of pride in her breads, birthday cakes and all of the Ukrainian foods that she prepared for her family. No one ever left their home hungry or empty handed. She believed in following the traditions of her parents and passed these on to her family.

She had a lot of hobbies that she enjoyed. She loved to crochet. The grandchildren and great-grandchildren all received gifts that she had crocheted. Jenny made a lot of beautiful scarves for family and friends. She loved to read, enjoyed jigsaw puzzles and her crossword puzzles. She loved to draw and all her grandchildren remember her drawing bitpens, puppies and bunny rabbits.

Her greatest joy, though, was spending time with her family, especially her eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Jenny was predeceased by her parents, Andrew and Fanny Luchkanych; sister Mary Samoil, brother-in-law Steve Krakowetz, and nephew Raymond Krakowetz; parents-in-law John and Helen Shemela; brothers-in-law, John Hankewich and Mike (Irene) Shemela, and sister-in-law Mary (Bert) Alcock.

She is survived and will be missed by her loving husband Paul; children, Michael (Arlene) Hankewich, Daniel (Christel) Hankewich, Cathy (Walter) Lafontaine, Beverly (Edward) Gutek, and Jim (Bonnie) Hankewich; grandchildren, Devin Hankewich, Jason (Brooke) Hankewich, Jesse Lafontaine, Amy (William) Atkin, Reagan (Craig) Macnab, Kendra (Regan) Reineke, Todd Hankewich, and Kerri-Lynn Hankewich; great-grandchildren, Christopher, Jacey, Mary, Emma, Heidi and Dominic; sister Anne Krakowetz, brother-in-law Don Samoil; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Lunch will be served in the church hall following the service.