

Loving Tributes

Saveion.... My best friend, my heart, my BROTHER, I never pictured a day without you. I will think about you every day for the rest of my life. The 19 years I got to spend with you will always be the highlight of my entire life. I know so much about you that I'll never tell ANYONE. 19 years of being my best friend, I'll forever hold you down. I cannot wait to tell my future children about you. I will always love you, and you will always be my boy. It has been an honor being your big sister. I will never forget about you, Saveion, & I promise you that. God is good, you are the most handsome angel now. I'll always be your biggest fan; YOU ARE THE PRIZE!! I love you so much, Saveion.

My only son... Cheers to a life well lived — full of love, kindness, loyalty, and a deep love that spread to everyone who knew you.

We laughed, we loved, we danced lol, we vacationed, and most importantly, we kept God first. It is such an honor to be your mom, knowing God loved me enough to trust me with your life.

I cannot express how proud I am of all your accomplishments — watching you walk across that stage. You always had something extra special about you, something only God could give.

I love you, and until we see each other again, your spirit will live through me.

Love always, Mom

Saveion was a child of God who openly confessed his faith in Christ. Growing up active in sports like baseball and football demonstrated his heart to work as a team. He loved sharing his joy for life and the things he liked to do with friends, and this could be seen in how he was able to bring people together on all occasions. His presence was uplifting, supportive, and loyal. He graduated from Lee's Summit North High School, Class of 2025.

Saveion continues to live through his mother, Michelle Washington; stepfather, Andre Owens; father, Ronnell McConnell; grandparents, Sheila Fletcher and Reggie McConnell; sisters, Amaria, Kamari, and Legaci; brother, Ronnell McConnell; aunts, Connie Washington and Robin Harris; uncles, Ivory, Marcus, Phillip, and Antonio Washington, Michael and Marlon Manning; and a host of cousins and friends who love him.
