Deborah L. Barr, affectionately known to all as Deb or Debbie, passed away peacefully on August 26, 2026, at the age of 69.

Born on September 18, 1956, Debbie was a lifelong resident of Philadelphia. She was educated in the Philadelphia School District, starting her journey at Kenderton Elementary School and later graduating from Simon Gratz High School. During her high school years, Debbie was a proud and passionate member of the Simon Gratz softball team, a sport that highlighted her energetic and team-oriented spirit.

Debbie dedicated fourteen years of hard work to AMER-RAC, where she eventually retired. Guided by her faith, she was also a frequent attendee of Deliverance Baptist Church. Outside of work and faith, Debbie had one undeniable passion: her beloved Philadelphia Eagles. She loved the Birds fiercely, and her family will forever remember her shouting, "Go Birds!"

Debbie was preceded in death by her loving mother, Delores Barr, and her father, Edward Barr.

She leaves behind a beautiful legacy and a family who will cherish her memory forever. She is survived by her devoted only son, Cedric Barr (Ceddy), and his longtime partner, Keilani Anoa'i; her cherished granddaughter, Janine Barr; her grandson, Rodney Barr; and her precious great-grandson, Kayden Hughes. She also leaves behind her brother, Grantis S. Barr (Donna); her sister, Becky Holloway; two nephews, Victor and Brandon Holloway; her dear friend and "sister from another mother," Pamela Staggers; and her lifelong childhood friend, Trisha, along with a host of extended family and friends.
