

OBITUARY

Sabrina Kaye Durham, a beloved mother, daughter, sister, and partner, passed away on August 21, 2025, in Cleburne, Texas. Born in Dallas, Texas, on August 5, 1963, Sabrina lived a life enriched by her deep love for family and her unwavering faith.

Throughout her life, Sabrina was known for her sharp tongue and sensitivity, qualities that made her uniquely engaging to all who knew her. A woman of faith, she thrived on sharing her love for those around her, particularly through the simple joys of life. Whether it was indulging in her passion for baking the best peanut butter cookies, embracing the refreshing scent of rain, or celebrating the warmth and joy of Christmas, Sabrina lived her life with enthusiasm and sincerity.

An ardent fan of the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers, Sabrina brought her vibrant spirit to every game, radiating enthusiasm and loyalty that resonated with friends and family alike.

Sabrina is preceded in death by her father, Paul Benton Durham, and grandparents, Virginia Faye Robinson and Basel Robinson. She is survived by her two sons, Jacob Michael Scribner and Stephen Eric Scribner; her devoted mother, Sharon Inez Robinson; siblings, Sonya Spodnick and Paul, Michael Finley, and significant other, David Dodd. She is also survived by her beloved Bear, her loyal dog and best friend.

Sabrina Kaye Durham leaves behind a legacy of love, cherished memories, and the profound impact she made on all who had the blessing of knowing her.

Goodbye For Now

*My friends do not weep for me,
For I am exactly where I want to be.
I now rest high upon the mountain,
Drinking freely from God's eternal fountain.
I have no worries, no aches or pains,
Far from the world's prejudice and disdain.
Don't spend this day mourning for me,
Be happy for at last I am free.
Free from Satan's constant attack,
Free from all the things that held me back.
At last I can worship him with all of my might,
I finished the race, I won the fight.
Now I am strolling down the streets of gold,
Just watching as eternity unfolds.
Safely nestled in my father's arms,
Far away from danger and harm.
My trials and tribulations are now through,
My body is now strong and new.
My friends and loved ones, who passed before,
Were all waiting for me at heaven's door.
There we had a great reunion in the sky,
And on the wings of angel's we fly.
My love for you all is still very near,
And I am waiting for you right here.
So please, my friends, do not cry for me,
Because I am exactly where I want to be.*
