

OBITUARY

Stephen Joe Gent of Cleburne passed on Sunday, March 23rd, 2025, at the age of 62. He was born to Glen and Clara May (Sanders) Gent on October 2nd, 1962. Joe was a life-long trucker which helped him meet people all over the country and from all walks of life; he never knew a stranger. He was always good for a laugh and never hesitated to help someone when he thought they needed it. He loved to boast and brag about the achievements and accomplishments of his loved ones. His proudest role in life was that of Dad and Papa, his love for his daughter and grandbabies was immeasurable. Joe will be fondly remembered and truly missed.

Stephen leaves behind his daughter Patricia Marshall and husband TSgt Bruce Marshall of the USAF, as well as his grandchildren Liara, Thane and Kaiden of JBER, Alaska; sister, Glenda Solomon of Cleburne; brother Larry Gent and wife Karen of Liberty, Missouri, and a host of nieces, nephews, other extended family members and countless friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Glen and Clara May Gent; his brother, C.W. Gent; sister, Paula Anthony; and brother, Bobbie Leo Gent.

Miss Me-But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road;
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little- but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing
good deeds,
Miss me-but let me go.*
